OTTAWA, SEPTEMBER 14, 1867.

THE election returns for North Ondario and EDWARD BLAKE appears to be the only one in luck, and in recognition of his good fortune talents, George Brown has the new Reform party in this Province.

Mg. Archie McKellar is a practical sort of a man, when he cannot get into the House of Commons by the favor of the electors of Kent, he is fain to abate his pretentions and municipal bodies and made in open court be offer his services to those of Bothwell as their representative in the Legislative Assembly. The Brownite candidate, as in duty bound again goes to the polls.

We print their presentment else where, in which in addition to some well de served compliments to his Honor and other dig witaries, the jurors present the Local Constitutions as a nuisance! We hope the court will permit each of them to be tried by the whole people of their respective provinces, as we feel sure that were the unfortunate constitu twelve men, good and true, of loyal old Carle ton, they should have to "dree the doom." Seriously, there is something akin to in glorifying the accomplishnion in one breath, and in the of the chief conditions upon which that Union was accepted --- viz., that the several Provinces affairs.
