knowledge what your furnitatills has done for me-Having miseries a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Fometimes it burst our in Chers on my bands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stegrach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and leathering seyand descripting. I tried many medicines and several agaleian of but without much relief from any thing. In act, the disorder grew worse. At length i was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sacso arilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnational got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advice, in antall doses of a temporalul over a alth won began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is pow clear, and I know by my leelings that the disease has gone from my system. New York, May 9, 1867: To A. M. F. GIANRILLI, ESQ., Dear Sir,-The "Tonico Reale" I have tried faithfully, and it gives me great pleasure to state to you that it is the best and most agreeable Tonic I have ever used in my practice. I find it particularly adapted to females and children debilitated by the various diseases and complaints peculiar to them. If you will favor me with a letter stating where I can procure your Bitters for my patients, shall take particular pains to recommend them. As a general rule the Bitters sold are too bitter and have too much Alcohol, and are hence often injuri-

Your "Tonico Reale" seems to me to be the Tonic we have long wished for, but never found until Prof. Verri, D.M., of Padua, has given it to the Medical World. Respectfully yours, WM. FRED. HOLCOMB, M.D., Professor of Aural and Ophthalmic Surgery in New York Medical College, and Surgeon to New York

Ophthalmic Hospital and Demult Dispensary. New York, June 1, 1867. MR. GIANELLI,-Deur Sir : After a fair trial I take pleasure in recommending your Royal Bitters, It is a very excellent stimulating tonic, aiding digestion and giving tone to the digestive organs. In your note you informed me of the ingredients. I think it is a most admirable combination; a pleasant, useful, and reliable tonic.

R. P. COOKE, M.D., New York, May 14, 1867. M. F. GIANELLI, Esq., Montreal. Dear Sir: Just recovering from a long and severe illness, I have received a sample of your Conico Reale and from its use have derived considerable benefit, as I find my appetite and digesion much improved, and hesitate not to recom-

I am respectfully yours, G. MILIANO, M.D. TRANSLATION.

Sir .: Allow me to congratulate you on the perfection of your preparation called "Royal Italian Bitters." I have prescribed it to many of my patients who had need of tonics to invigorate their. energies, without failure in any case. This preparation besides being composed entirely of substances stimulating, bitter and tonic, posesses every quality which constitutes a wholesome beverage and tonic in a remarkable degree. By the stimulants and bitters which it contains, it acts directly upon the stomach and digestive organs, by arousing the energy of the digestive functions, and in rendering the act of digestion more easy and

By the tonic ingredients, and especially by the ron which enters into its composition, it acts on the whole organization; the tissues assume a consistency more decided, a development more complete, a functional energy more regular: the globules of the blood become richer, the vital energies greater, the muscular system more powerful, the nervous system calmer. This beverage, which is stomachic and at the same time tonic, is serviceable not only to persons in health by promoting digestion, but may also be employed with advantage in a multitude of ailments which are the immediate consequences of excesseso errors in nutrition, such as dyspepsia, enteralgia, anunia, chlorotis, leucorrhes, convalescence, in short in all cases where the system is much debilitated for want of restoratives to refresh its energies and strengthen its organs. This preparation, by its elegant appearance, its delicious flavour, and above all by its restorative properties, deserves to attract public attention, and should be considered as infinitely superior to all articles of the kind which have appeared to the
