

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

1ST PARLIAMENT: 1ST SESSION.

THE SENATE.

THURSDAY, November 14, 1867.

The SPEAKER took the chair at three o'clock.

After the presentation of petitions, and other routine.

INQUIRY.

Hon. Mr. McCLELLAN inquired of the Government if the report that two gentlemen appointed to this Chamber from New Brunswick had declined acceptance of their seats in it, so, had those vacancies been filled.

Hon. Mr. CAMPBELL answered that there were two vacancies for New Brunswick in the House, and they were about to be filled up.

REPORTING THE DEBATES.

A general conversation discussion again took place on the motion of Hon. Mr. Wilton for a committee to report at what cost the debates of the House could be printed and printed. Some hon. members favored the appointment of such a committee; others preferred leaving the matter in the hands of the Committee on Contingent Accounts, and consent of the House the motion was referred to it by that Committee.

It was then put and carried.

ADDRESS.

Hon. Mr. STEEVES gave notice that he would inquire to morrow of the Postmaster-General, whether daily mails were made up in this city for Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; if not how many mails were made up each day, each week, and by what route or routes they were sent.

MAILS TO THE LOWER PROVINCES.

Hon. Mr. STEEVES gave notice that he would inquire to morrow of the Postmaster-General, whether daily mails were made up in this city for Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; if not how many mails were made up each day, each week, and by what route or routes they were sent.

ADDRESS.

Hon. Mr. CAMPBELL moved for an Address to His Excellency praying him to communicate to this House, any royal instructions received by him respecting the passage of the Royal Assent.

The hon. gentleman stated, it was desirable to have these instructions, together with the Royal Assent, printed with the new edition of the Rules and Orders of the House.—Carried.

The House then adjourned.

AT TWO O'CLOCK, P.M.

Gentlemen attending the levee will please to bring with them Two Canes with their names legibly written or printed on them, one to be given to the person appointed to receive them in the Corridor, and the other to the Officer who will announce their names to His Excellency the Governor-General.

Entrance by the door immediately under the Governor-General's Office, and departure by the Eastern door of the building.

By Command,

J. G. IRVINE,
Lt.-Colonel,
A.D.C.
Governor-General's Office,
Ottawa, November 9, 1867. 5867.

Mr. JULY.

Mr. JULY