F.NANCIAL STATEMENT.

On the calling of the orders of the day, Hon, Mr. ROSE said that he desired at the earliest moment to place the House in possession of the position of financial affairs, and to best arrangement would be to pay a specific present the statement of account of revenue and expenditure for the year ending 30th June, 1867, as also those of the Dominion Government since 1st July. He had expected to have these accounts ready before now, but he hoped to be able to put them in the hands of hon. members on Friday, and, as it would be unfair to hon, members to go on with any financial statement before these accounts had been laid before them, he proposed to ask the House to meet on Saturday at 2 p. m., when he would be prepared to move the House into Committe of Supply. He could not yet fix a day on which to bring down the estimates, but the Government would, if possible, on Monday propose the measures they had determined on, affecting the tariff, in committee of ways and

Hon, Mr. HOLTON, reterring to the promise in the Speech from the Throne, of a statement of expenditure since 1st July, hoped that the Government would explain their policy in increasing the number of D partments.
