

The amenability to justice of criminals... The Select Committee... Mr. HARRISON... Mr. NIASLEY...

SPEAKER'S DECISIONS

Published by permission. JUDGMENT IN THE MATTER OF THE CONTROVERTED ELECTION OF BERTHIER.

In this matter, several documents are produced by the sitting member in support of his objections to the recognition entered into by the signor under the name of George Champagne...

1. Extract from the Parish Register of the parish of St. Genevieve de Berthier, being a certificate of the baptism on the 4th day of October, 1828, of Alexis George, born of the legitimate marriage of Celestin Beaupre and Marie Genevieve...

2. Certificate of baptism of another child, George Beaupre dit Champagne, 17th Sept., 1862, signed on that occasion G. Beaupre.

3. Valuation roll of the parish of Berthier, 1859, name entered as George Beaupre. Several affidavits have been filed in support of the objections. The deponents Contu, Gagnon, Leclair, Bisard and Fréchet, state that they know the person who has been named as George Beaupre...

4. Counter affidavits have been filed by the petitioners, sworn to by the Mayor, the Seigneur, the Postmaster, and the Secretary of the Municipality, all of which show, as well as the bulk of evidence taken before me, that the surety is generally and publicly known as George Champagne...

It is objected that the baptismal name of the surety in full, Alexis George Beaupre dit Champagne, should have been stated in the recognition and in the affidavit of every party. A decision in the case of Paradis vs. Lamere in the Superior Court for Lower Canada is cited by the sitting member...

The case of the King vs. the Inhabitants of Billingsburg, reported in 3 Maine and Selwyn, page 250, is a striking authority against this objection.

There can be no doubt whatever that George Champagne is by that name generally and publicly known, and by that name can be readily found. Even the affidavits filed on behalf of the sitting member, qualified as they are, show this clearly.

The question is, can a surety, under the Statute, give the name by which he is known, or must he give his baptismal name? A similar question was raised in the St. Hyacinthe Controversed Election case recently before me. The surety was baptised Charles Alfred Mousseau, but was publicly known as Joseph Alfred Mousseau...

Having discussed the merits of the case, I have concluded that the sitting member is entitled to the benefit of the Statute, and that he is entitled to the benefit of the Statute, and that he is entitled to the benefit of the Statute...

The United States corvette Shenandoah was at Shanghai; the Albatross had gone to Hong Kong, and the rest of the squadron was in Japan. The United States Consulate and all its archives at Foochow had been destroyed in a great fire there.

Advises from Yokohama state that Onotomo had attacked the Tycoon at Osaka, and after four hours' fighting the Tycoon was driven to his ships, and went to Jeddo. All the foreign legations were pillaged and burned, the ministers going to Niago; Quatema and Chester had been ordered to take charge of the foreign settlement, and avoid coming in contact with foreigners.

THE Japanese Town of Karagawa had been burned with a loss of two and a half millions of dollars. A large number of high officials had been beheaded for treachery, and a great many on account of the Tycoon's misfortune had committed Harakari.

Writing classes will commence on the 1st of April next, under the supervision of the Commercial College of Canada, where all those wishing to become proficient in the art of penmanship would do well to call. The advantages arising from being able to write a good hand, and at the same time to write rapidly and neatly, will be conceded by every thoughtful person. This is an accomplishment essential to every position of life...

These definitions training the art of writing fast as man can speak will now have an opportunity of doing so as classes will be formed on the 1st of April next. The utility of this subject will be conceded by all who have given it a moment's consideration, and were it not for the fanciful difficulty of learning Photography many who are now afraid to take up the study would soon become as eager to take up the study as the student of any other science.
