CABLE NEWS

YESTERDAY'S DESPATCHES.

LONDON, April 15.—Later news from Paraguay states that the Paraguayan still hold Aracaju. After the battle with the Paraguayan troops, Captain Godin, when it being six o'clock, the House resolved, and the Committee having reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again, the Speaker left the chair.

London, April 15.—The Journal de St. Petersbourg has a pacific article on the state of Europe, in which it says that a general disarmament of the European powers is probable.

Paris, April 16.—The long standing enmity between France and England has again flared up.

London, April 15.—On the reception of the Prince of Wales yesterday, one of the noticeable features of the decorations was the frequency with which the American banner and flag was displayed.

LONDON, April 16.—It was rumoured to-day that advice had been received from Abyssinia to the effect that the British captives at Magdala had been released by King Theodore, and that the object of the invading force having been attained, the war was over. Despatches from Tripoli were received at the Indian Office late this afternoon, but though the news is favorable to the hopes of the expedition the above mentioned rumors are not confirmed. Gen. Napier said in his last despatch that he had left latitudine 23, longitude 135, and still had 100 miles to go.

The column of advance was within 60 miles of Magdala, and 20 miles of that distance had been successfully reconnoitred. The troops were in good spirit and eager for a fight.

Accounts from Magdala had reached the camp, which stated that the King had been captured, and evidently dead.

It was reported that the British troops had not magnanimously waived their claim in behalf of the great principle of Union which he had so much admired was more conspicuous than that of his disinterestedness and generosity, which had alone prevented him from leaving those who were dearest to him.

He continued his speech, and then declared his belief in the hon. gentleman's right to be considered the author of the bill.
