Ottawa, June 2, 1868.

London, Ont., PATENT HARROW Mr. KENNEY, proprietor, is stopping at the British Lion Hotel, Sparks-st., where manufacturers of farming implements and speculators would do well to call and see the Model Harrow. He has several counties in the Eastern part of Ontario unsold. It any party who purchases the right does not sell more and surpass all other Harrows in this part of the Province, the patent will cost him nothing Hundreds have been sold in the Western part of the country, and sarmers prefer them to all others. Call and judge for yourselves. Town-ship and County Rights for Sale.
