In front of the altar was a green cloth, and in front of that, a red one; we were informed that the execution would take place on the red cloth. Seating ourselves upon the mats on the platform, we In a few moments the prisoner came in, dressed in the usual Japanese dress of a person of rank, accompanied by the executioner, who was his pupil, and most in timate friend. He walked with a steady firm step in front of the altar, where he O'Brien, of L'Orignal, and is well adapted knelt in prayer. He then arose and went for the purpose.
