It seems, assistance to relieve the people of a " tyranny" they have never yet felt.

We direct attention to the communication of JAMES TURNER, Esq., the Treasurer of the Hamilton Relief Fund. Our readers | has managed to get into the City Council and may remember that we have already published the particulars of the arrangements made by Mr. Sasson for the application of this excuse, that they were intended not more attention the money forwarded to St. Paul. But as to uphold Conservative interests than to conthe Mayos arranged with the MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKs for the transmission of this city's contribution, through the Department, it will doubtless, be promptly and efficiently done. The contribution raised in this city alre wiv exceeds two thousand dollars, and has prolably nearly reached its limit. As Mr. SANFORD said in his letter to Mr. TURNER (which we published), "Ottawa has done " nobiy."

OUR correspondent "Corporation" summed up the issue between the City Council and the Street Railway Company as follows: viz : The Corporation ask the Street Railway Company to agree to a single track-to agree to west for better bridge accommodation before rossing to the Chaudiere, and to agree " will not in anyway atone for the blunder." the n .ghborhood of the track without being "To this the company reply, we have our Wz are gratified beyond measure to fine that the Conservative party in Toronto has so many able, honorable and trustworthy men within its ranks. Even the Globe is almost lost in admiration of their virtues. They are so well deserving the gratitude of their leader, so much entitled to consideration in the distribution of public patronage, that the Globe is almost disposed to ask the Government to create a few new offices for their accommodation. There is but one bad man in the party, and-he's SMITH! How odd SMITH has done little or nothing for the party; and that little or nothing wasn't for the party either, but for himself! And yet Smith gets the collectorship of the port and all the faithful men of good desert are passed over. Well! it is not a bad party that Conservative party of Toronto. They are all admirable men but Smittl-and he's lucky.

It is very curious about these Conservatives at any rate. These last twenty years or so, parring an intermission of eighteen month , or thereabouts, dating from a bright June d y in 1861, there has not been a good man of the party appointed to, nor a bad man re-used, an office! And though he had been set aside on the ground of objection that he was a lawyer, Sir John was not without others to fall back upon. The Hon. William Cayley was also a candidate for the office. We trust the Collectorship will console Mr SMITH for the bad odour in which the Globe holds him. He may at least indulge the reflection that had he missed the Collectorship the Globe would have spoken of his merits in very different terms; and seeing that its good word and the office could not possibly go together, it is quite likely that he to our utmost satisfaction and greatly to your is content with the latter.
