BRITISH ARMY IN CANADA. - The Army and Navy Gazette, Oct. 24, asserts that the Government have come to the resolution of at once reducing our military strength in | 4 LOTHS. Canada by two battalions. This will change the programme of reliefs to be carried out by her Majesty's ship Simoom, which left Kingstown for Gibraltar, on Sa- | CARPS. turday with the 81st Light Infantry. The programme was as follows:—83rd, Gibraltor to Halifax; 47th, Halifax to Barbadoes : 2nd battalion 16th, Barbadoes to | 16 Gibraltar; and 2nd battalion 15th, Gibraltar to Ireland. The 83rd will now remain at Gibraltar, the 2nd battalion 16th bein brought home at once from Barbadoes, and the 47th being replaced at Halifax by a battalion, probably the 1st battalion Kifle Brigade from Canada, which will not be relieved. The 100th Regiment, from Montreal, will also be brought home at once, thus reducing the strength in Canada by two battalions
