FROM TORONTO. ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

2nd Session ! 1st Legislative Assembly. Special to THE TIMES. Tononto, November 18, 1868. There were but twenty members present in the House yesterday, Twenty-two petitions were presented, graying for aid to superior education. The Bill to amend the Grammar School Act was read a first time. The Bill to repeal the enactment respectlog the protection of sheep from dogs was read a first time. The Bill to provide for the better protection of game was read a first time. The House concurred in the amendment to the Bill securing the independence of the Legislature. A clause was added to prevent the repetition of the "double shuffle." A long discussion ensued regarding the conduct of ectain members in 1958 and 1864. Mr. McKellar moved an amendment to prohibit the election of members of the House of Commons to the Legislative Assembly. Attorney-General Macdonald moved in smendment to the amendment, asserting that it was premature to deprive the people of the right to dual representation. Atter a long debate, chiefly of a personal sature, the amendment was carried by a vote of 42 to 31. The Bill to provide for the registration of births, marriages and deaths was read second time. Mr. Corne introduced a Bill respecting the partition of real estate.
