THE BENEFITS OF PRUSSIA TO GERMANY.

(International—London French Paper.) One knows the consequences the aggression of Prussia has had from the point of view of European interests.

A correspondent informs us that the tournament of the Wardsville Volunteer Infantry, No. 6 Company, 26th Battalion, was all that could be desired so far as the originating and management throughout were concerned.

With the exception of the Bothwell Company No. 8, 24th Battalion, no competitors from the District entered the list in the squad match against the Wardsville Teams.

The rapid firing match was exceedingly interesting, being similar to the 2nd series breech-loading rifle match at the N.R.A. meeting of 1867.

Best average score—Capt. O. Malley, 2,875, silver cup; 2nd do—Corpl. McEachren, 2,579, silver cup.

Best percentage of bull-eyes at pool target—Corpl. McEachren, a pair of boots.

Best score made by a squad of five—No. 6 Company, 26th Battalion, a double barrel gun; 2nd do—No. 8 Company, 24th Kent Battalion, a single barrel gun.

Best percentage of bull-eyes at pool target—Corpl. McEachren, a pair of boots.
