venture it in August? There is no great risk of their doing anything quite so foolish; and we think the best thing Mr. Carmichael can do, if it is determined not to perform his duties as a member of the House of Commons, would be to tender his own resignation, and allow the electors of Picton to pronounce upon the situation while electing his successor.

The Ottawa Times

Office 35, Sparks Street. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1888. For Ottawa Markets and interesting reading see Fourth Page.

The Privy Council met yesterday afternoon in private session. The Railway Commissioners also held a meeting yesterday, and had, we understand, a Conference with the Privy Council, after which it was determined to put portions of the act under contract, so as to circumvent the law.

The Commission will meet again to-day, and it is probably adjourned over the holidays. The County Council of Carleton, accompanied by the Sheriff and some other gentlemen, waited upon His Excellency Sir J. M. Young, and through the Warden, JOSE HOLMES, Esq., M.P., presented a congratulatory address, to which His Excellency made a suitable reply.

We understand that some twenty new Volunteer Companies, recently formed in the Province of Quebec, have been accepted by the Militia Department, and will be gazetted to-day. In this Province there are some three thousand five hundred volunteers over the quota required by the Act.

In this Province there are some three thousand five hundred volunteers over the quota required by the Act. Of course the companies that do not re-enlist within the time prescribed, will be removed from the roll, and in case the number should still be found to be too large, reductions will be made in the numbers of men composing the several corps.

If we are to credit some of the prophets of evil, there are breakers ahead of the Canadian ship of State. Because there are matters in dispute, as to the exercise of certain powers between the Local and Dominion Governments, we are warned that there is to be a great battle about "State Rights."

These things do not indicate any danger of a serious quarrel about "State Rights." We are never alarmed in Canada that a municipality will "secede" because it may have exceeded its legislative powers in passing some by-law which the courts set aside.

The Nova Scotia war of words has been revived by the entrance of a new contestant, in the person of Mr. J. W. CARMEICHAEL, M.P. for Picton. This gentleman, it may be remembered, was one of the two members of the House of Commons who remained at home during the second part of the last session of Parliament.

He proposes that the Local Legislature should resign and make a fresh appeal to the people, a proceeding which he thinks would add strength to another representation to the Imperial Parliament. We fancy that this part of Mr. Carmichael's programme will not be satisfactory to Messrs. WILLIAMS and Company. However, it is only fair that these gentlemen should make some sacrifice for the cause, and Mr. Carmichael, who obeyed their dictation last winter, has the best right now to invite them to show their own earnestness by something stronger than words.

TORONTO UNIVERSITY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES. SIR.—Do you wish the readers of the Times to understand that Toronto University neglects the English education of its students? If the "instances on record" are sufficiently numerous, or of such a character as to justify a conclusion unfavourable to the University, as compared with other Canadian institutions, you are quite right in calling attention to them, and only err in not stating the case more strongly and plainly than you have done. If they are not, then to refer to them all seems to me a very invidious thing, injurious to the University, and to every man who holds a degree from it. If you know of "instances" which reflect upon Toronto University, other people know of "instances" which reflect upon the denigrating articles which the Times so frequently publishes. But really it serves no good purpose to talk about such matters at all. There is a plain issue between two rival systems of education—the secular and the sectarian; and the more closely we confine our attention to the points at stake, the sooner the controversy will end.

Yours very respectfully, A GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY. Our correspondent is entirely too sensitive. It was not "as compared with other Canadian institutions," but with the "ancient University of Cambridge" that we spoke of Toronto University, and the desirability of its rigidly adhering to a similar strict rule for that said to have been adopted at Cambridge. We did not draw a "conclusion unfavourable to the University"; but stated that there were "instances on record" to justify the inference that there was room for improvement; and that we said without any reference to the "issue between two rival systems of education."—Ed.

The following answer from Mr. Wain of Montreal, in answer of several questions addressed to him on the "silver nuisance" expressed, we think, the real effect of the large influx of American silver:

8. Ques.—Has not money been plentiful since the influx of silver, and do not people spend more freely and pay their accounts more readily to the great advantage of trade? A.—In answer to the numerous supplies of breadstuffs, animals, provisions and lumber purchased at high prices to supply the United States market during and since the war, it is that country, a large amount of money has been brought into Canada, but that gold has been brought in instead of silver on condition that gold would not be used.

"Part 2" of Good Words for the Young, has reached us from the agents, Messrs. Durré & Son. The name of the editor—Dr. Norman McLeod—is a guarantee of the excellence of the work, and no doubt the young folks enjoy the "good words" during these long winter evenings.

LOCAL NEWS.

—Breakfast shawl, cloudy, hoarse and gloomy at the skirt factory for half-price.

—A large arrival of Prairie Hens, Partridge, and Quail at the Queen Restaurant, Centre Town.

—Within the last two or three weeks we have noticed an unusually large number of cases of influenza in adult persons. People will, therefore, do well to avoid crowds.

—In our notice of Mr. Currier's house at New Edinburgh, we omitted to mention that the excellent hot air furnace and fittings are the work of Esmond Bros. of this city; and also that the beautiful mantle and other marble works were furnished by Mr. Mills.

—The St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum.—Yesterday a deputation of the lady managers of the St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum waited on the County Council, and presented a petition praying for a grant of money in aid of the infant institution which they represent. The prayer of the petition was granted, and fifty dollars appropriated to that purpose.

—Police Court.—John Doyle, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was discharged. Liquor cases—Isaac Biggers, M. A. Campbell and Xavier Lavolette, charged with violations of the liquor laws, were all fined.

—St. George's Society.—The stewards of the society, who have charge of the Christmas charity, are now ready to receive donations to be sent to the poorest and most deserving. They wish to contribute to assist the poor who are suffering in the city.

—Santa Claus and Christmas.—Messrs. Orme & Son, under this heading, advertise an endless variety of elegant novelties, which beautifully adorn the interior of their new store. They inform us that they are daily receiving all kinds of goods in the musical and toy line, of the nature of which a more correct judgment can be formed by reading an announcement in our advertising columns.

—Cook's Inquiry.—An inquiry was held yesterday morning on the body of the deceased Thomas Cook, the circumstances of whose death we noticed yesterday, when, after examining several witnesses, they returned their verdict: "That Thomas Cook died of the effects of alcoholic drink, and not from any external injury or violence. The jury cannot close their verdict without calling the attention of the coroner to the fact that the deceased was in the habit of drinking to excess, and of purchasing liquor from unlicensed parties."

—Mr. Rowe has instructed us to say that with the advice of his friends he will not be a candidate for the position of Mayor, but that he is prepared to meet all that feel disposed to his sales-room this day, at three o'clock, when he will be prepared to discuss with them the silver question, which is now before the people, and he seems satisfied in his own mind that he can give them better value for their money than the City Collector, or others.

—Night School on the Ice.—Last winter we had frequent occasion to complain of the villainous practice of placing night soil in boxes and barrels on the ice of the Ottawa. The Board of Health then employed a watchman to prevent persons from committing so gross an outrage, and several were brought before the Police Magistrate for making the attempt. The Board will do well to take action to prevent such persons from committing such a gross outrage, and several were brought before the Police Magistrate for making the attempt.

—School Examination.—The examination of the pupils of the Central School East was continued yesterday morning and afternoon, with the most satisfactory results. At half-past two o'clock, p.m., the time announced for the distribution of prizes, etc., the senior classes removed to the large upper room for their better accommodation of the audience. There was a good attendance of visitors present, among them His Worship the Mayor, the Rev. Dr. Jones, Rev. Mr. Wardrop, and another clerical gentleman whose name we did not learn. Mr. Cousins, Local Superintendent, Messrs. May, Wilson, McCloy, and other trustees. The Mayor was called to the chair, and spoke in terms of praise of the appearance presented there, as well as of the proficiency made by the pupils.

—Dr. Jones, Rev. Mr. Wardrop, and another clerical gentleman whose name we did not learn. Mr. Cousins, Local Superintendent, Messrs. May, Wilson, McCloy, and other trustees. The Mayor was called to the chair, and spoke in terms of praise of the appearance presented there, as well as of the proficiency made by the pupils. He said he had advised Mr. Cousins to deliver a paper on the occasion, and he had the pleasure of introducing him for that purpose. Mr. Cousins then read an able address suitable to the occasion, setting forth the duties of parents as co-operators with teachers in the education of their children. After which a vote of thanks was tendered to him. The Rev. Dr. Jones, Rev. Mr. Wardrop, and the Chairman, made some remarks complimentary of Wilson gold medal for general proficiency (the first prize) was a writing set, awarded to Miss Susan Walsh, but the others had not been determined on. Several gentlemen were called on to address the audience, viz. Mr. A. C. Wilson, who spoke in favour of the education of the young; Mr. McCloy, Mr. Langril, Mr. Carrier, Mr. Smirle. A cordial vote of thanks was tendered to the Mayor for the uniform interest taken by him in the cause of education, and after singing "God Save the Queen," the school broke up for the Christmas holidays, that is till the first Monday in January.
