DUTIES FOR THE NEW YEAR.

Go, warm the cold; go, clothe the bare; Go, feed the starved one at thy door. And let the empty-handed share From out thy basket and thy store.

Go, wipe from misery's eye the tear, Take by the hand affliction's son, And happy shall be all the year That is thus happily begun.

Go, give the sick and weary rest, Gladden the cells where prisoners lie; Pour oil and take in wounded breast, And soothe the soul about to die. Do thus, and thou shall go to rest

And, blessing, shall be trebly blest, For each such soul thus comforted. Thy soul shall make a golden set The New Year's day, and be by far The happiest day that ever yet
