THE Assessment Law, before its adoption by the Legislature, was amended in several partieulars. Among others, the salaries of lature, residing at the Capital, were exempted from taxation, as were also those of the same classes in the employment of the Local Government at Toronto. The exemption in favour of the latter was made at the request | of Messrs, CAMERON and WALLIS, the city last year the Corporation of Toronto had not taxed these incomes.

WE hope the members of the City Council will not fail to read the advertisement of the Royal Insurance Company, inserted eliewhere. That Company declines taking any new risks in this city, in consequence of the absence of adequate means for extinguishing among the Insurance Companies will not become general. There is a widespread feeling among all the intelligent ratepayers of the city, that water works are an urgent necessity, and we hope that active steps will soon be taken to bring about their construction. The matter is receiving the serious consideration of the Corporation, and we expect before many months are over to have the pleasure of recording the adoption of some plan whereby the city will be well sup-

IT is pleasing to notice that the Quebec To His Worship the Mayor, H. J. Friel, Esq. " Government is fully alive to the importance of promoting settlement on the wild lands of the Province. Governor BELLEAU's Speech is strongly in favour of an enlightened policy which will open up the country, and give employment to the young men at home who are now attracted elsewhere in search of labour. If the promises in the Speech are fulfilled, as no doubt they will be, the Province march of improvement.
