SNOWED UP.

From the Montreal Gazetto.

The passengers by the Western trains leaving town at 9: 15 a. m. of Wednesday, must have blessed the planet under which they revolved. Less adventurous spirits would, not improbably, have been deterred by the storm howling for their departure from attempt of that bourne whence all passengers return. Need we say that we allude (imperfectly) to Lachine? But gaily ran on the confiding innocent to their doom. The spot selected by Providence for their repulse and pun shment was about two miles beyond Lachine station. There they stuck-in the Tartarus off Africans. (We thus feebly designate a snow-drift.) There being two Lozenges are a certain and safe remedy for locomotives united, the opposition of Worms in Children and Adults .- As it is a well- difficulties led, as is not uncommon, to a known and melancholy fact that one great cause severance of the bond, and the wild goose of death among children is from Worms alone, it chase of one of them towards better times sannot be too deeply impressed upon the minds of shead. Alas! whether the somowing parents the necessity of closely watching their consort thus abandoned, has yet been reshildren. By so doing; and understanding joined by the rover is more than we can liseases which are caused by Worms: deranged these wretched machines sought solace in spectite, emaciated extremities, offensive breath "jacking," whatever that may be, or requent picking at the nose, grinding of the teeth h wever that may affect them. The 1, conductor started on foot for Lecline about 11 a. m. Thence he was ensoled to telegraph for aid, as well as to despatch a-small gang of shovellers, to the relief of both the engine which bad left her consort and the other which had left her charge No two of which three links could, however, the combined genius available, succeed in reuniting. Having prived at two, they consequently departed of four. The situation now began to deepen inte horror. Hunger began to gnaw, and thirst parch the vitals of 100 people who had been scarce vulgar enough to realize such sensation previously. When lo! a trumpet in the distance, and Spicer a la reconsse to cheer the fainting lives. In other words there came a carriole of bread and cheese, Samaritanically if such an adverb exist, despatched by Grand Trunk authority. The consump tion of such viands, aided in deglutation by melted snow alone, produced naturalnot one of which, however, could succeed in working up. Everybody else on beard genius of the country. Three snow-shoers started for the clearings, and were bie to send up two carrioles, which were promtly hired by (of course) a newspaper man, "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP." and gallantly (of course) devoted to the service of as many ladies as they would hold. Lachine was reached yesterday morning in about an hour and a half occasional shovelling being necessary, and a devoted band of juvenile habitants hanging on behind for the purpose, and, after a hearty breakfast there, to be relished peculiarly under the awful circumstances, there were at least eighteen feminine lips to wish gratefully ben voy ige to Ottawa for a certain member of our profession. The two nuns and the three snow-shoers here joined to fill a fourhorse team for town, which was joytully retained to about 1 p. m. vesterday after a fruitless, though adventurous abscuce of nearly 30 hours. Every effort possible was made by the company, but King Winter beats all. The returning passengers met the snow plough other plow with three engines was start-there. Clouds of navvies encompassed both, and if there wasn't some smart shovelling got through between the two -why the fact is very remarkable. The storm is said by Lachine residents to have been the most severe experi need at this season for the past thirty years. Among the ill fated passengers we recognized the names of the Rev. Dr. Irvine, Mr. John Lovell (Daily News), Mr. Thomas (Private Secretary to Mr. Campbell), Mr. Crombie (St. Thomas). Mr. James Cotton (Ottawa Times), and Mr. Currier of Ottawa also, There were perhaps some twenty ladies in all. The remarkable success which has attended the
