TORONTO. St. Patrick's Day in Toronto.

Special to THE TIMES. TORONTO, March 17. This being St. Patrick's day, it was celeusual colat. Various societies met early in | ruins sion was formed, which joined the Hibernian, and paraded the city. No fault could be found with the party which attended Mass, About 1,000 were in the procession.

.The Rev. Mr. Punshon has returned from Washington, where he has been for three weeks past at the opening of a new Methodist church, which cost $250,000.

The Grand Jury of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace in their presentment stated that in consequence of the statements made against the management of the jail they made athorough examination, and conversed with the prisoners alone, and feel bound to state that they found the institution thoroughly nest and clean, and was, as far as they could judge, well conducted.

A young woman who arrived by the late train last night met a man on the street about one o'clock this morning, and she asked him to find a lodging house for her. He promis d to do so, and lured her into a lane, knocked per down, and robbed her. Her cries attracted the policemen, who arrested the villain. le was committed for trial to-day.

OBITUARY.

It is our painful duty again to chronicle the death of one of our oldest settlers in the County of Carleton. The subject of this memoir, John Bouover, Senior, who died the 10th March, 1969, was a native of Mount Shannon, County Galway, Ireland. He was born in the year 1795, and emigrated to Canada, with his wife and two children, landing in Quebec on the 19th May, 1819, being then 24 years of age. After wending his way up the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Rivers he located in the Township of March, in which township he lived till a few years betore his death, having removed to the Township of Nepean, adjoining where he first settled, and where he remained till Death, to whom the strongest must submit, claim- Extra Satin ed him as one of his victims.
