THE LOCAL REPEAL PARTY. From the Halifax Citizen. We make the assertion advisedly and emphatically, that not a single member of the Local Government ever believed in the success of repeal. Not a man of them looked upon the agitation as anything but a scheme by which they could gather together a party whose numbers would make up for the want of public character and capacity in its leaders. There was hardly a man of them who did not day after day in conversation, treat the movement as a standing joke. Let the people who are being exhorted to enthusiasm in order that they may afford additional amusement and profit for their rulers, think on these facts known to every man who has had any intercourse with the members of the Local Government since they came into office. Let them reflect upon the further fact that the stain of sinister motives can rest upon none but the local ministry. Mr. Annand enjoys an office worth two thousand dollars for these important offices care should be a year-into his own printing establishment is turned the patronage of the Government to the tune probably of eight or ten thousand dollars a year, and names of gentlemen possessing these qualifi- yet because Mr. Howe has accepted an office worth less than half the aggregate of these amounts, the press under the control of the Treasurer, is made to team every day with the insinuation that Mr. Howe intends to feather TTAWA his nest, and has sold the country to whose service he has devoted the energies of his entire life. This is the conduct of the man who owes every political friend he has, few as they are, and every dollar he owns probably, to the profitable friendship of the man whom he is seeking to defeat and traduce. There is a specimen of patriotism, honour, and gratitude | School handsomely personified. And what share bave Mr. Annand's colleagues had in the spoils of the country? That Mr. Wilkins has used his office corruptly is a matter of general notoriety.
