MCLEAN,

Mayor of the city of Ottawa, whose mortal career was terminated by death on Sunday morning last, were placed in their final resting place yesterday afternoon.

On Monday morning the members of the Connell assembled in the city hall for the purpose of considering what measures were most proper to be taken under the circumstances, when, resolutions of condelence with Mrs. Friel, in her sad bereavement, were passed, be acceptable, as the Council were desirous of paying this tribute of respect to the mem- Catholic Cemetery on Sandy Hill. ory of the deceased. After some consultation the proposition was accepted, and a funeral committee was immediately appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

The committee at once conferred with the presidents of the several national associations and other public bodies, all of whom promptly accepted the proposal. They sent invitations to the members of the Government, who expressed their intention of being present. They also invited the members of the Senate and of the House of Commons, receiving favourable answers in all cases. And similar sults were obtained from a conference with the proper authorities in reference to the volunteers and the fire brigade.

The undertakers department was assigned to Mr. Swalwell, who carried out the atention of the Council in the most satisfactory manner. . The funeral was arranged to take place yesterday at two o'clock. For an hour or two before that time the streets were to attend the mouraful ceremonies.

A large number of the friends of the deceased visited the house to take a last look at the well known features, and presently the members of the City Council, with the officials, arrived in carriages, and entered the join us in thanking them for it, house for the same friendly purpose.
