The Chicago Tribune denounces the Central Pacific Railroad roundly for announcing that the passenger fare will be ten cents a mile. Its suggestions seem to be just. We quote :- !

There is no excuse for any such rates

has been built by the money of the nation, The Central Pacific Railroad Company has built six hundred and ninety-miles of road and the government has issued to 8:30 a m it bonds to the amount of $23,464,000. public land which at this moment is worth in cash $20,000,000, making a total sub-Intermediate Stations, at..... 7:15 & py sidy of $43,364,000, or over $62,000 per Trains for Lachine at5:00 a m, 7:00 a m mile. In addition to this the company 9 a m, 12 neon, 1:30 p m, 4:40 p m; 5 p m, has issued bonds to the amount of $23, 000,000, for which it has mortgaged the road .- The stockholders have in one way or the other apportioned among them-8:40 am | selves a very large portion of this sum, This distribution of profits has taken place even before the completion of the Burlington & Rutland at a m, 4.40 p m road. In the meantime the company ... 2:00 p m has refused or neglected to pay the interest on its bonds. The road itself has been constructed in a very loose manner, and the money which the managers have ing literally made away with the bounty that they have a monopoly, and that She has excellent accommodation for passengers travel and traffic must pass over their line, now propose to charge ten cents per an extortion to which the American people will not submit. It is the strongest aid which has yet been given to the tions, apply at the Ticket Office, Bonaventure Sta- scheme of building another, and if it shall lead to an intervention by the general government in the affairs of both companies, and the enforcement of every condition attached to the grants of land and of bonds, it will prove of great publie service. The country knows that it has been robbed in the construction of this road, and that it is disposed to forget; but if the robbery is to be a continuous one it may be as well, in taking measures to put a stop to it, to overhaul affairs from the beginning, and have accounts adjusted strictly.
