stabbing, which it was at first feated would end in death, occurred at a house of ill-fame on Besserer .. It appears that a young man named Charles Macdonald, who was at the time intexicated, went to a house of ill-fame, kept by W. Bennolt and his wife, who kept a girl named Letend, and demanded admittance, threatening, if he were not permitted to enter, he would break down the door. On the inside there was a young man named Francois Peachy, the paramour of the girl Letend, who stood at the door and refused to open it. After some time, however, the door was opened, but by what means there is no reliable testimony. HOUSE OF COMMONS.

In the House of Commons this evening Sir | 10,000 John Gray, member for Killkenny, asked the Government if there was any reason to apprehend further trouble in Ireland, and if the military force in that country was to be strengthened?

Mr. Fortescue, Chief Secretary for Ireland, stated that the Government was informed Ottawa, June 22, 1869. that Mr. Johnson, a prominent Orangeman, had called a meeting to celebrate the anniversary of the 12th of July. This was not an act of hostility to the Government, but the practice of increasing the military force in Ireland about the time of this anniversary, was never more necessary than in the present
