SWINDLING ON A LARGE SCALE.

A Clairvoyant's Confidence Game. From the Peoria (III.) Democrat, June 11.

About two years ago an old gentleman once a prominent railroad man and well influence over him, and finally induced to execution their well-laid plans for obtaining the money.

As soon as the marriage ceremony was performed, the three started to Peoria on old man was drugged to such an extent as to render him half insane. It seems that the latter had raised and educated an orphan girl. The childish old man, rendered more foolish through the influence of the administered drug, was induced to believe the story that the girl had made affidavit that she had been seduced by her adopted father, and the officers of the law were upon the track to arrest the
