ARREST OF THE CHIEF CLERK IN THE RECEIVER GENERAL'S DEPART MENT.

-BEAVY DEPALCATIONS REPORTED.

On Saturday evening, between eight and sine o'clock, a rumour got abroad that G. C. Reiffenstein, Esq., Confidential and Debenture Clerk in the Receiver-General's Department, had been arrested for mal-appropristion of the public funds. The report naturally caused great excitement and much regret among Mr. Reiffenstein's many personal friends in the city. Euquiries at the examination will take place before Mr. was before he received the injury. O'Gara, the Police Magistrate.

It need hardly be said that the occurrence created very great excitement in the city, and the facts are developed under due process of business of importance will be submitted. law any comments on the unfortunate case would be very much out of place. It may be relied upon that a full in festigation will be held, and it will be very gratifying if upon hold judgment in suspense.
