The Young Men's Christian Association, under whose auspices the lecture is given, have fixed the price of admission at a very reasonable rate, when the expense of bringing Dr. Ormiston from Hamilton is taken into a count: We hope to see their energy well rewarded by a large attendance at the chapel on Thursday evening. -

SHALLOW GRAYE: - We are informed that at a funeral in the Eonan Catholic cemetery, yesterday morning, a good deal of dissatisfaction was expressed at the shallowness of the grave, which was to receive the coffin. It was said to be no more than three feet deep. One of the persons attending the funeral insisted upon its being made deeper, and, taking of his coat, set about the work himself. Seeing this the grave-digger turned o and helped him. Three feet is certainly not deep enough for a grave and, b the obvious impropriety, it is a waste of ground.
