THAT FIRE BELL .- A fire bell was to have been put up in Lower Town, somewhere about the market. It was promised some six months ago, but since that time we have heard nothing of it-except grumbling. What is the cause of delay? It is badly wanted, for on some occasions a fire occurs in Lower Town, when the value of fifty bells might be sacrificed for want of it make preparations for the St. George's Pic-nic, to be held on the 19th inst., have all been speciated, and are busily engaged at their work. They have received the kind permis" sion of Mrs. McKay to select any part of the estate for the occasion. There is good reason for believing that this will be a gathering of no ordinary character. The list of games will be very full, we hope not too much so.

CURLIANA .- We perceive by an advertisement in another column that the members of the Curling Club are requested to meet on Saturday evening, at eight o'clock, in the Temperance Hail, Elgin st, for the transaction of important, business. We have seen skating in the dog days, and it is not impossible that some discovery may have been made to enable the votaries of curling to practise their favourite game in summer. We shall see, ANOTHER SERIOUS ACCIDENT. - We are SOLLY to learn that Mr. Maingy met with a serious accident on his way home to New Edinburgh, on Tuesday evening, from the raising of the sidewalk, near McLarett's mills. The repairs were lett in an unfinished state, and without a light to show the danger to foot passengers We have not learned the full extent of Mr. Maingy's injury, but we have learned that he is confined to his bed. REIFFENSTEIN'S CASE.

The Sheriff of the county of Carleton, yesterday afternoon, held a court of inquisition under the writ of extent issued against the estate of George C. Reiffenstein, to enquire HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, as to what goods, money, lands, debts, &c. are owned within this bailiwick by the said G. C. Reiffenstein, that the Sheriff may seize and hold them for the Crown in satisfaction of a debt of $22,000 owing to the Crown by Reiflenstein on the 20th of July last. The court was opened by the Sheriff in the when the following gentlemen were sworn as a jury to investigate the case :- Alex.
