AUCTION SALE ON SATURDAY .- Mr. Rowe, anctioneer, will sell on Saturday next, at ten s. m., at Mrs. Reiffenstein's residence, Richmond Road, opposite Dr. Hill's, a valuable let of furniture, including a superior piano, of Chickering's make.

no particulars, but hope it was all right.

THE RESPENSION CASE.-The Sheriff's Court, under the Writ of Extent as to the restate of George C. Reiffenstein, was opened three o'clock, p. m.

Insane.-The unfortunate woman, Mrs. Easton, whose attem, t at suicide white labouring.under insanity, we chronicled the other day, has so far recovered, under the attendance of Dr. McKenzie, as to be able to be removed to jul, wher she is now confined as adangerous lunatic.

THE WEATHER,-Yesterday morning th weather was so chilly that an overcoat would have been quite tolerable. Coats we're buttoned, shawls were wrapped closely around the shoulders, and gloves were a comfort. What does this mean? People had better look out for colds. Scores were caught yesterday. Take care.

SUNDAY FISHING .- Five persons were brought before Donald M. Grant, Esq., J. P., muce and provided. The offence was proved against four of the nersons, each of whom was Connection.- In the paragraph in yesterday's 'Imas, noticing the Sunday School Excursion to Butternut Grove, in connection with the Baptist Church, the name of Capt. Bowie was inadvertently inserted instead of that of Mr. J. T. Sutton, who is acting captain during the temporary absence of Capt. Bowie ; and who has this season been promoted, and deservedly so too, to the office of purser of the steamer Queen Victoria. Mr Satton is a favourite with the t avilling community on this delightful route, now so much taken advantages of by our citizens for budness purposes, as well as pleasure trips.

pany P. C. O. Riffes left by steamer for Montreal to prepare brrracks for the other companies of the regiment here, and for those in Quebec. The whole regiment will be in Montreal by the 25th of the present month, and it tions, be sure to ostain the genuine. Sold by all | G P Baker, Eaq. is expected they will be joined by his Royal Highness Prince Arthur some time in September next, on the return of Lord Alexander. Russell to Canada, The P. C. O. Rifles will Rifles, whose headquarters will be in Toronto. Only one barracks will be then used in colds, thick wind, and all diseases which affect Ottawa. We understand the men who left yesterday enjoyed their trip on the steamer amazingly, singing songs, dancing, &c., &c.

REMISSION OF SENTENCE.-It will be remembered that, on last Saturday week, Dunning and Portcous, who were charged with assaulting and jobbing the showman, elected to be tried summarily by Judge Armstrong, without the intervention of a jury, were so tried, and convicted of the assault only, when the Judge schienced Dunning to two ries of all grades, Ports of fine dy, Souterne and Maderia Wines wood and bottle, improved by age. months' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of fifty dollars. Porteous was sentenced to one month in jail, and to pay a fine of ten dolbrs. The Government have remitted the sentence, so far as to the imprisonment. Porteous paid his fine, and was liberated yesterlay, and Dunning was to be set at liberty as soon as he should pay the fine.

Anoruga Luxaric .- A poor insane woman named Bakes, was brought in from the, 1074d country, on Wednesday night, in a most pitiable condition of insanity, and was yester- CURLERS 'day morning in the police station singing religious hymns and spiritual songs. There were no less then twenty or thirty persons having business, or to be spectators, at the Police Court, listening to her for half an hour before the arrival of the magistrate. And so impressive was her character that, though the cardinal creeds of the city were represented, there was no one present who indulged in the slightest levity by word or action, but all seemed duly impressed with the solemnity of the scene. There a woman of the lower class, the wife of a soldier of the Hundredth Regiment, sitting on a bench, clad in homely garb but cleanly in her appearance, her face partially hidden by a very wide brimmed straw hat, somewhat of the sombrero style, and there, utterly unheeding the presence of spectators, she sat pouring out in a good alto voice from the depths of a devoted spirit, hymns and songs of praise and adoration to her Saviour and her God, well calculated to inspire respect and even awe in the minds of those who heard her. And to the credit of those present, be it said, no one interrupted her, but deeply touched at the sad spectacle of "a mind diseased" evinced a desire to do something, J. G.
