THE NEXT ATTRACTION .- " Never, perhaps in the history of those who have been instrumental in amusing society which needs relaxation from cares, in order to save the world from its tendencies to lunacy, has there been one, who, with unpretending power, has played so important a part as has Mr. Hartz, who has been so appropriately styled by the press and popular voice, as the Prince of Illusionists." Such was our opinion of this great artist on his former visit to our city and who, we are happy to state, for the second time commences on Monday next. Since his former visit here, he has invented a series of feats, which, we understand, far supersedes anything he did on his previous visit, not even excepting " The Head in the Air," which we then thought inexplicable. His programme (which will be entirely new) will be varied each evening, and will include many other wonderful foats, "The Column and Glove," which is only performed by the Hindoos and M. Hartz, the "Gymnastic Goblet," another great Hindoo trick, and hundreds of others. Besides these, M. Hartz will appear during his short stay in an entirely new role, but as he wishes us to keep this secret, we won't divulge more, but let our citizens find out for themselves, when the proper time comes, what this mystery is We expect to see gay, happy and delighted, THE HORRORS -- Mrs. Leteau went to the leager, crowds, flock to the Skating Rink when the time comes, and know full tion that her husband was in a terrible state | that, large as the Rink is, it will not be large
