PIANOS AT AUCTION, -- Mr. Rowe announces that he will sell at auction, on Tuesday next, the 28th inst., several splendidly finished new pianos, at his auction room, Rideau-st. near the Suppers' Bridge, They may now be seen at the place of sale, and all will agree that they appear to be magnificent in struments. The carving and general finish of these pianos are soldom equalled, and as to the quality of the " tone, touch," &c., Mr. Rowe says he can shew satisfactory testimo nials from numerous persons of eminence wherever they have been in use. The maker's name is Vose.

INSOLVEST AUCTION SALE CONTINUED .- Mr Bermingham will continue to sell, to- day, the balance of the stock at Smith's carriage factory. An immense quantity of iron, steel springs, machinery and carriage materials, was sold yesterday, at a great sacrifice: To-day the best part of the stock will be offered; and, as it consists of every description of hardware, paints, carpenters' and smiths' tools, necessary for a large carriage factory, parties desiring bargains in this way will do well to attend. Some new and second-hand carriages, buggles and sleighs, will be sold; and, as this is the last day, great bargains may be expected.
