MURDER AND SELF-MURDER.

Horrible Murder of a Maryland Gentleman-His Head severed from His Body. From the Baltimore American, September 27.

On Friday night about 11 o'clock a most horrible murder was committed in Baltimore County, the victim being Mr. Samuel Burton, residing on the Harford road, about one mile from Copper Factory on the Gunpowder River, and eleven miles from this city. The alleged murderer is named William Brown, formerly of Terre Haute, Indiana, who served in the army, and shortly after the war came to this State, marrying a niece of Mr. Burton. The accounts reaching this city of the affair represent that about the time above stated that Brown and Burton became engaged in an altereation at the house of the latter, when the former knocked Burton down and dragged him in the commercial Waterloo, his genial, him.
