THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature of the Province of Ontario is to be called together for the despatch of business on the 3rd of November next. We observe that quite a number of private bills are to be asked for, and some of them of very considerable importance. Acts of incorporation are to be applied for by the Ontario Peat Company, the Mississippi Mining townships in Northumberland and Simcoe desire to be set apart as new counties. Acts to confirm certain surveys of lands will be submitted on behalf of the town of Chatham and the township of Portland, in Frontenac. The town of Woodstock will apply for an Act to permit the County Council of Oxford to use the free fair grounds, originally granted by the Crown, for other purposes

besides fairs, and Mr. D. A. Macdonald of Glengarry, desires to be allowed to ex-
