MAGEE & RUSSELL are constantly receiving additions to their already very large stock. To-day they advertise London Pattern Bonnets, Clouds, and more of those very cheap Wincies.

GARLAND, MUTCHMOR & Co. have just received new Pattern Jackets, the greatest novelties of the season. As usual they are shewing the largest stock of new choice goods comprising stylish goods, at moderate prices as well as the richest in Ottawa.

RIFLE MATCH.—The shooting match of the Field Battery will take place at the Range to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

NEW ORGAN.—It is expected that the new organ for the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Metcalfe street, will be in its place by next Sunday week.

INFLUX OF MERCANTILE MEN.—Quite a large number of mercantile travellers arrived at the Russell House yesterday. Probably for the purpose of doing business before the close of navigation.

WOUNDED BY A GUN.—A man named Collins, who resides at the Flats, had three of his fingers shot off, on Monday, by the bursting of an old gun with which he was shooting. Only one of the fingers could be found.

FURNITURE SALE.—Mr. McLean, auctioneer, will commence to sell on Friday the magnificent household furniture of Mr. Duvernay. Furniture and effects can be seen at the cottage, Wilbrod-st, to-day and to-morrow, from ten to five. Catalogues can be had from the auctioneer and at the cottage.

INSPECTION OF TROOPS.—The half yearly inspection of the troops took place yesterday. The 60th Rifles, including a detachment from the depot in England, were drawn up in the yard of the George-st. barracks, and inspected by Gen. Windham, who complimented them on their soldierly appearance.

READ UP.—By an advertisement this morning it will be seen that Mr. Carter, of the Ottawa Grammar School, is prepared to give lessons in the Latin, Greek and French languages, and in Phonetic Short-hand. Mr. Carter is from St. Catherine's College, Cambridge. This will be a good opportunity for young men and others to read up.

IMPROVING.—We are happy to learn that the billious remittent fever, which has been raging in an aggravated form for the last three weeks at Lo Breton's flats, has been since the cold weather set in most materially altered in its character, and it is confidently hoped that none of the present cases will eventuate fatally.

DESERTERS RECAPTURED.—Three Deserters who escaped from the Governor General's residence on Saturday night, were brought in yesterday by assistant detective Davis. They were arrested at Spencerville, and gave the constable a good deal of trouble, and some rough usage, after which they made off as fast as legs could carry them, but they were recaptured and handed over to Davis, who went out for them.

POPULAR READINGS.—The Webster Hall reading social will be held this evening, commencing at eight o'clock precisely. If the old frequenters of the Webster Hall readings turn out in their strength they will doubtless have a good time. Great care will be required at the beginning not to allow any improper element to enter. The object should be at those reunions to combine intellectual improvement with social refinement and virtuous enjoyment. We shall watch this "reading social" with interest, and wish it success.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Capt. Forsyth, officers and members of the Ottawa Field Battery thankfully acknowledge the following contributions to the list of prizes to be competed for at the annual shooting of the O. F. B. on Friday, the 29th inst.: M G Sutherland, silver medal, value $10; H Hick & Co, suit of winter clothes, value $35; S Evans, smoked ham, $3 50; R Woodland, French calfskin, $3; Mr Cuthbert, pair horsemats; J M Currier, M P, cash, $10; Horace Merrill, $5; J D Slater, $4; W Graham, $1; W Sutherland, $1; J P Featherston, $2; H O Burritt, $1; Capt Young, $2; G P Baker, $1; Perley & Pattie, $1; T M Bisadell, $1; Mr Blythe, $1; Alonzo Wright, M P, $10; W P Lett, $2; Robert Surtees, $1; J A Grant, M D, M P, 5; Wm Mosgrove, $1; A Graham, $1; N Sparks, $5; A Campbell, $2; R Gilpin, $5; John Graham, $2; D Fulton, copy of Chimney Corner newspaper for one year; Ira Morgan, $1; M S Bisadell, $2.

ARREST FOR ALLEGED ROBBERY.—A man named Soverne was arrested here, yesterday, by assistant detective Davis, on a charge of stealing a gold watch from a man named Dake, in Templeton, at the house of the prisoner's mother, where he stopped on Monday night. Soverne's story is that Dake boarded at his house here in the city, and in his absence passed some bad American money on his (Soverne's) wife, and that seeing him at his mother's he wanted to give him the money back, and when Dake would not take it he said: Then you must give me your watch, and Dake gave it to him; that Dake and he came into town together on Tuesday, and Dake treated him, and then asked him for his watch, which he refused to give up, and a warrant was taken out, and Soverne arrested. It is said that the watch is a brass one. Soverne will go to Templeton this morning.

POLICE COURT.—William Edwards was brought up for selling meat without license, but was dismissed.

Maxime Gagnon was found drunk on the streets yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, by Constable Bonning. Whisky had left him only just sense enough to be aware that he was cold, and didn't know his way home, and was frantically calling upon Le Bon Dieu to shew him the way. Eventually he was shewn to the station by a guide in a blue coat. Fined $2 and costs.

Evangile Lafleur, a flowery, good-natured looking young man, whose face gives the lie direct to Lavater's theory, and would lead modern physiognomists astray, was charged with stealing three sticks of cordwood, value nine-pence, from Mr. Alexander Cuddy, of King street. Look at the man in the dock and say could he, with such a name, such a face, wearing such smile (for he smiles even in his affliction) steal wood? Every one would say no! And yet there was the unanswerable evidence,

"He was caught in the fact, of the overt act"

Stealing wood "on a Sunday morning," and to our surprise he confessed the crime, but urged in extenuation that he was very poor, and said that was the first time, but Mr. Cuddy thought differently. He elected to be tried summarily, and was sentenced to two weeks hard labour in the common jail.

LIGHT WANTED.—A short time ago there was a man drowned in the canal, and in a few minutes after he fell or walked in by mistake in the darkness of the night, the police were on the spot, and out in a boat searching for him, but there was no more light for the police than there was for the unfortunate man. If there had been a good, strong ligat the water might have been seen in motion where the man fell in, and he might have been recovered and restored. A few nights ago some thieves escaped in the darkness, and it is quite possible that robberies might often be prevented or the robbers apprehended if our police had the means, as the police in other places have, of throwing a powerful light at will upon suspicious persons, and into dark corners, lanes and alleys. And during the long, cold winter nights, now approaching, poor, houseless wretches might be discovered lying in doorways and other places, in time to prevent them from freezing. And a hundred other advantages might be secured by furnishing each of our policemen with a good lamp with a powerful reflector to be fastened to their belts to be kept dark except at the moment when they wished to throw its light on a person or any object, and then, in an instant the slide could be drawn back and a light flashed forth that would illuminate everything for a considerable distance. We are almost ashamed to have to advocate this measure at this time of day, when the same thing has been so long in use in other places, but there is no help for it, and we hope our Police Commissioners will see the propriety of adopting it at once. No argument is required to enforce its adoption beyond what will be obvious to all who give it a thought.

REFORMS NEEDED IN THE MARKET.—Those who go to the By Ward Market on Friday mornings to purchase fish must very often be disgusted, and the owners very much annoyed to see the fish trampled under foot, as lying on the sidewalk, they almost necessarily are. The sidewalk is not a proper place to expose them for sale, and a more suitable place should be provided. We do not pretend to say that our fish market is anything like Billingsgate, or that it is likely to become so, but we do say that purchasers are very much annoyed by the inconveniences arising from there being no suitable place provided for buyers or for sellers, and it has been suggested that some of the vacant space within the market house, never occupied, should be set apart as a fish market, and for the remainder of the present year let the market lessee collect the fees from the fishermen, as if they were outside as usual, or else charge a small rent and make a corresponding deduction from the price paid by the Lessee for the market. Then a decent fish market as the present circumstances seem to admit of. A corporation in its wisdom may devise a better plan but a change of some sort is called for. And while they are thinking about this it would be well to direct their attention to another source of annoyance which, like many other annoyances, might be turned to considerable advantage. But the best time for considering this would be a wet day, when an avalanche of rain collected from the whole of that extensive roof is poured down on the devoted heads of those who walk under the eaves, as all doing business there must do. How mortifying it must be to the butchers to see this wilful waste of water, so much needed for purposes of cleanliness, whilst they have to pay so much a barrel. Why could not all this water be utilized, and the inconvenience to people outside be prevented? Our clever City Engineer could devise a way of collecting this water in a cistern and supplying it to butchers and fish dealers through pipes, with taps gauged to the requirements of the different sized stables; the main to be turned on at a given time every day, and stopped at a given time, and charge each a small sum, in proportion to his gauge, to defray the expenses. It may be urged against this that, so far as the interior of the market is concerned, the water from the roof would not be required when we have the Water Works. To this it may be answered that, so far as the outsiders are concerned, they do not require to be drenched to the skin by the water from the roof while about their business, neither before nor after the advent of the Water Works. There is yet another reform required to make our market perfect. It is desirable that information as to the rights and duties of both buyers and sellers in and on the market, condensed from the market by-law, be posted up in conspicuous places, and in large black letters, so as to be easily read by all. Besides this a bell should announce to dealers when they might begin to operate. If the law does not excuse ignorance, it is the duty of the law maker, wherever practicable, to impart knowledge.

The question of grants to superior education has not yet been properly settled by the Legislature of Ontario. Until the public is satisfied with the utility of Upper Canada College in our educational system, the former question will remain open. The Honourable John Sandfield McDonald has not been so successful with educational questions, as the great SHOSHONEEN REMEDY has been in eradicating the numerous chronic complaints of the Lungs, Liver and circulatory organs. For sale by all druggists.

ESMONDE BROS.

ACCIDENT.—There was an explosion in Doctor Ayer's Laboratory yesterday, which caused some excitement in the vicinity. Ayer's Pills are manufactured under an enormous pressure, in cylinders, like cannon which sometimes prove too weak for the compressed forces, and burst with terrific violence. Fortunately, the pieces do not fly far, so that no one has ever been hurt by them. The notion is more like too than powder; but it makes Pills which all the world acknowledge are PILLS.—Daily Journal, Lowell.

have published a report and net valuation of all its policy and annuity obligations, by an actuary totally unconnected with it, the Hon. ELIZUR WRIGHT, of Boston, late Insurance Commissioner for the State of Massachusetts.

It is believed that such a voluntary submission of the Company's position to an eminent and independent actuary of the Hon. ELIZUR WRIGHT'S well known high character and professional skill, will add to that public satisfaction and confidence which the "Canada Life Company" enjoys.

Copies of Mr Wright's report may be had at the Head Office, or at any of the Agencies throughout the Dominion.
