A Good Unpertaging .- The ladies of the Sussex-st. Chapel of Ease have determined to hold a bazzar in Gowan's Hall next Tuesday the 16th inst., for the purpose of raising funds to procure an organ for the Chapel. We trust the ladies will bestir themselves and do the best in their power for this laudable object, as we have no doubt they will. The Church of England has of late put forth unmistakeable evidences of a healthy vitality, and their success is much to be desired.

THE WEATHER .- We have on several occasions of late noticed the weather, as it was at the time of writing, and before the notice has met the eye of the public there has been an entire change. It is to be hoped that such may be the case on the present occasion, for on this Monday night the ground is covered with snow and a cold wind is blowing, though not so cold as it has been through the day, nor has the cold through the day equalled of premature interment, comes from Toulous that of Sunday night, when the wind was France. PRESENTATION.

The employees of the firm of Thos. & Wn Hunton, upon the retirement of Wm. Hunton Esq., waited upon, and presented that gentleman, at his residence, Richmond road, or Saturday evening last, with a beautiful silver mounted cane (gotten up at the establishmen of Mr. John Leslie) and the following

Sin,-Hearing with very great regret your intended severance from the firm of which you have so long been a worthy patron. we the undersigned employees of said firm, desire to embrace the opportunity thus afforded of testifying to your generous dealings as a merchant and your general uprightness of character as a man, and hope you will accept receiving daily, all kinds of fresh fish. Fami-lies supplied. Goods delivered to any part of the esteem in which you are (and ever will be) held by us, not according to its intrinsic value, but according to the earnestness with which it is tendered to you, with the hope that you may long live to enjoy the fruits of a successful career, and that you and family may be the recipients of the richest bounties of Providence. (Signed,) WM. FARQUHAR, S. BURNS,

To which Mr. Hunton, not having been in visitors, made the following imprompte

GENTLEMEN,-1 need not say that I am com pletely taken by surprise at this compliment on your part, and that therefore I am quite unprepared to make a suitable reply, but will content myself with saying that I duly appreciate your handsome gift, and shall ever prize it; but more especially for the kind feelings towards myself and family evinced in your address, and further I would say that as the length of time the most of you have been in In fact there could not be said to be a market the employment of the firm will show your conduct has been in the highest degree satisfactory to me, and while I thank you more than I can find language to express, I wish

The young men were then in turn surprised by being asked to adjourn to another room the inner man had been prepared, to which ample justice was done, and after the health and happiness of the host and hostess had been drank and responded to, the company separated with mutual feelings of satisfaction and pleasure,-Com.
