RAPORTED ROTHSCHILD AMERICAN LOAN.

From the London Telegraph. If a telegram from New York b but a shadow of the truth, we may se in our time one of the largest single financial transactions that has taken place. It is said that the Messrs. Rothschild have offered the United States Government, at four per cen Interest, a loan sufficient to pay off the. national debt. The amount of the principal is probably even now £500,000 000 sterling, and the average interest is something between five and six per cent; so that the Washington authorities would, of course, gain by the transaction, though we learn nothing about such important matters as the time and mode of the repayment of the principal. Unless " the Rothschilds" suggest a perpetual consolidated stock we hardly see their advantage, as it is already open to them to buy United States stocks in small sums, and thus to obtain the present rate of interest. Possibly whole story is a fiction, worthy of invention of the people who got up the Gold Room melodrama, and whose President, General Grant, has to publicly leclare that he had nothing to do wit country we should be from Mr. Gladstone wrote to the pressto announce that he had not bought up telegraph stock just before the Govern-men on acquiring the lines. But" across the Atlantic it appears, there are other men and other manners. ITALY.

The Cologne Gazette publishes some further particulars of the mu.der of Miss Tione, the traveller. It says that it appears from a letter from Herr Rossi, the Austrian Consul at Tripoli, that the unfortunate lady was the victim of a dispute between two tribes of the Tuaregg race. On arriving at Mursuk she obtained an escort from Ichnuchen, Street and another in Knightsbridge, the most powerful chief of this tribe, to London. take her to their camp, where she purposed to spend the summer. The brother of the chief of the escort had been murdered by this tribe, and they accordingly proposed, instead going to their camp direct, to make a
