shelter, and part of her duty, as she mys, has that she has before now been beaten and had her eyes blackened for refusing.

A Good RIDDANCE.—The hundreds of people work of grading has been commenced.

redations on the wood piles.

LATE PLOUGHING .- We have learned, from everal farmers from the country, that the early frost this Fall has caused a suspension of the usual Fall ploughing. The teams thus relieved from that duty may be employed in bringing produce to market and hiring for their clay land, because by turning it up it rumbles and becomes loose in the Spring. and is as easily harrowed as ordinary loam

A Ban Rusaway .- Yesterday in market a pair of horses attached to an express wagon ma away down Clarence street, and in their mad career frightened another pair of far mer's horses standing at the market. The latter took two mad bounds across the street, breatening destruction to the women who sat in the wagon, and, had they gone down the street instead of turning into Gordon's gates the wagon would have been smashed to peloes, the women most likely have been killed, and the lives of a number of people jeopardized. Market constable Little, was present, and rendered good service in preventing mischief.

BATHER LUDICROUS. - Yesterday afternoon a heavy, able-bodied raftsman, named Donald McDonald, was lying drunk on the side-walk having been forcibly ejected from a candy shop, on the floor of which he had sough repose. As be lay on the sidewalk, all unconscious of the amusement he was affording to the crowd around him, a woman, who had evidently been indulging too, came out with some tes, and regardless of the jibes of the boys, fed the prostate raftsman with that refreshing beverage, in the hope, as she said, of bringing him to. Before this goods Smaritan succeeded, however, the police came up and took him away to the lock-up. He will be exhibited in the dock of the police court this Police Court.—A young man, with a very hard name, was charged with having been found in a state of somnolency on the side-walk, baving been overcome by the soporific properties of his favourite beverage. The unhappy patient assured his Worship that he had been abstemious for a long time, but that yesterday he was induced to enter one of those establishments where thirsty souls perfectly oblivious. He represented that he finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at the Times Office.

Mary Doyle, a nice, cleau-looking widow, clad in the sable habiliments of wee, the effect of which was heightened by the coutrast of a pale face, with bair to match the mourning, with having used towa de her language favourable to the impression that her afflictive bereavement had lost the sparp edge of its poignancy by the consolations of 6.30 pm gentlemen whose visits to the house were frequent. The intimetious to Mrs. Doyle by the defendant, that her grief had been mit igated in this way, were convoyed in terms at which any young or midile-aged willow ledy might well take umbruge, and Mrs Doyle took umbrage. Grief like her's seeks privacy, and brooks not interference. The police magistrate signified to Mr. Edward Monaghan that he should chave been more discreet in communicating to the jured lady his knowledge of her affairs, and the terms were not sufficiently select for a fair lady's ears. His worship concluded his re marks with a quotation from a favourite author of his containing a figurative allusion t money-$2 and costs.

The next case was Edward Monaghan vs. Mary Doyle, This was a cross action, and Mrs. Doyle thought it was a cross action The complainent stated that both families lived in the same house, he and his family had a room down stairs and a room upstairs, and that the widow had a room down stairs and a room upstairs, divided throughout by a very thin petition, which, if it was not transpar ent, afforded little impediment to sound, so that words spoken, or movements made, on either side were distinctly audible on the other. Thus each family became, so far as dry and frosty, the Farmers turned out bright | sound was concerned, acquainted with all the and early yesterday morning and treated us transactions of the other; thus, the eloquent to a very good market. Considerable quanti phillipics of Mrs. Doyle against the chastity of ties of pork came in and sold readily at $9, to complainant's wife and his brutality, and $10 50. All other articles were in very good | their retorts and free remarks on her income solable widowhood were conveyed in unbroken accuracy to the cars of the others. To Owners or Honsm.—It is a well attested fact confirmed by the experience of thousands that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy " for horses is superior to anythin got the kind now or ever known. We know I at it has been used in many cases where the horse has been considered almost worthless, with the most satisfactory result, the horse having been restored to perfect soundness or so much beseffited that the complaint could scarcely be observed. Many such horses have afterwards been sold for from $10 to $100 more than they would have previously brought, and were well would have previously brought, and were well to the difference; let all interested consider this course south 77 west magnetically, and extend up along the rear of the limits licensed on the River Jean de Terre, (that is five miles back from it) seven miles and a half, thence westerly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, more or less, to the easterly on the course south 77 west magnetically, eight miles and a half, thence westerly on the course south 77 west magnetically.
