To say that it is the work of Notman is to my that it is an excellent one, an excellent likeness, good as to attitude, facial likeness and colouring. It is a full length portrait, shewing the late Recorder in his robe. It is of course a photograph, and coloured in water colour. A few more such pictures would be a desirable addition to council chamber. s's Concert to-night St. ANDREW'S CONCERT. - The annual concert under the auspices of the St. Andrew's Society of this city, which takes place on the 30th inst.,

promises to be a grand affair. The amateur talent in music cannot easily be excelled. The selection of speakers is good, and, we believe, it is the intention of the committee to vary the concert by select readings from an eminent professional now in our midst. The prize poem for a "gold medal" promises to be an attractive feature of the evening's extertainment. The subject of the poem is "The Thistle" as the national emblem of Scotland, and all the poems are returnable on or before the 25th inst., to the President, subscribed by some motto, and the real author's name enclosed in a scaled envelope. The committee promise a rich treat for our citizens, and as the object is a charitable one, we bespeak a large patronage for our Celtic friends. Full particulars in a few days.

It is bad enough to have scores of children huddled together in a basement for ever so short a time, but it been laid partly for the above reason, and ently in one spot.
