LOCAL NEWS.

BLUE Oysters by the pint, quart or gallon. Try them and save 25 per cent at Buss & Co's, 21 Rideau street. 1208.6m

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the public that they have removed to No. 21, Rideau street, in the premises lately occupied by the Ottawa Citizen, where they will always keep on hand a large and first class stock of Fruits, Vegetables, Oysters, Fish, &c., &c.

J. B. Buss & Co.,
21 Rideau street.

SLEIGHS, CUTTERS, AND BUFFALO ROBES.—Mr. Birmingham will sell at two o'clock, p. m., today, on the vacant lot at the entrance to Major's Hill, near the Sappers' Bridge, a number of sleighs, cutters and buffalo robes.

A GREAT VOCALIST COMING.—We are informed that the great vocalist Mr. Philips has been invited by a number of the clergymen of this city, to come here next week to give us one of his rare treats of sacred songs.

READING AND SOCIAL PARTY.—We learn that the managers of the reading and social parties at the M. E. Church, Dalhousie st., have resolved on opening their season in the church school room on Tuesday evening next.

PERSONAL.—Wm. Compton, Esq., one of the official arbitrators, arrived at the Russell House, last evening, from Halifax. The other members of the board are expected here this morning. The board meets this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when Mr. Robt. McGreevey's case will be taken up.

ARRIVALS AT THE RUSSELL HOUSE YESTERDAY.—Geo. Purvis, Portage du Fort; W. Cameron, Montreal; A. Motta, Paris, France; K. N. Coats, James Jackson, England; W. McD. Dawson, Three Rivers; S. Bell, G. A. Green, Montreal; C. S. Crisler, Morrisburg; J. McMullen, Brockville; Wm. Compton, Halifax, N.S.; J. A. Cameron, Lancaster.

THEATRICAL.—We learn that there is a well known dramatic company (Pike's) coming to the city next week. It appears that they would have opened at the theatre on the 30th inst., for which they had taken the house, but agreed to defer their opening to accommodate the St. Andrew's Society, who require it that day for their patron saint's anniversary.

SATURDAY EVENING SALES.—Mr. Tackaberry has made arrangements for holding Saturday evening sales for the winter, the first of which will be held next Saturday evening, commencing at seven o'clock, when he will offer at public auction a large stock of overcoats and other clothing, platform scales, stoves, a quantity of tea, &c.

SNOW SHOE CLUB.—A number of young gentlemen, interested in snow shoeing, have resolved on getting ready for the coming campaign, and invite old members and others to join them and organize a stronger club than that of last year. The leading spirits of the sport will probably call a meeting some time next week.

REV. W. STEVENSON, OF TORONTO.—We are pleased to learn that the Wesleyan Methodist Church in this city has invited the above-named eloquent and popular divine as successor to their present pastor, and that the reverend gentleman has accepted the invitation, subject to the approval of conference. We are sure that he will receive from our citizens generally a most cordial welcome.

DIARIES, &C., FOR 1870.—We perceive that Messrs. Durie & Son, mindful of the approach of Christmas and the New Year, have already secured such of the goods in their line as could with propriety be issued before the arrival of the time, and will continue to receive constant accessions to their holiday goods, and amongst those will be found a fine assortment of diaries, stationery, books, &c.

THE ORPHANS' BAZAAR.—The friends of the St. Patrick's orphans should remember that the bazaar in aid of their maintenance is still open and flourishing. There are remaining great varieties of those beautiful and useful articles we have already spoken of, and the refreshment tables are still groaning beneath the weight of those choice viands which the lady attendants are waiting to dispense. Go and pay your respects to them.

SOCIAL ASSEMBLY.—A social assembly of the members of the Ottawa Field Battery will be held this evening in Gowan's Hall. The prizes competed for at the late Rifle Match will be distributed to the several winners. Dancing will commence at half-past eight. This is a good arrangement, because it is presumed that they will break up early enough to allow the dancers some time for sleep, that they may be refreshed for to-morrow's business.

ST. PATRICK'S HALL.—The readings at the above hall last night were very successful, and the hall as usual was crowded. The musical portion was well sustained by Miss Smith and Miss Reys, Mr. Codd and Master Mahon, all of whom received well merited encores. The following gentlemen were the readers, viz: Messrs. Roger, Waller, and J. P. Robertson. Mr. Codd gave an excellent recitation. The readings closed at an early hour, so as to give everyone an opportunity of going to the bazaar.

SUMMARY TRIAL.—Michael Gleasy, the brutal fellow who made a murderous assault on his wife on Tuesday morning, will be up for trial to-day before Judge Armstrong, the prisoner having elected to be tried under the new law without the intervention of a jury. In our report of the examination we stated that the magistrate remembered Gleasy having been sent for three years to the Penitentiary for stabbing a man at Petawawa. Since then we have learned that he had previously served a term of five years for a similar offence.

CURLIANA.—The Ottawa Skating and Curling Club announce in our advertising columns the opening of a book for subscriptions for preferential stock. They are now shewing unmistakable signs of energetic life in their early preparations for the winter campaign, but this is characteristic of the active sons of the roaring game. The club are expending about $250 in fitting up the rink, and lighting it with gas, and are determined that it shall stand ahead of all the A 1 rinks of the Dominion. A strong corps of new recruits stand ready to join the club at their first meeting.

FOR PENETANGUISHENE.—Sheriff Powell, with an officer, leaves the city this morning to convey young Ryan to his Western reformatory home, where he is to spend the next three years. If that institution succeed in that space of time curing him of his vicious propensities, and sending him back to the world a reformed youth, it will have done more than we have ever given that, or any similar institution, credit for being able to do. We believe, in fact, that the period is far too short to be productive of lasting good, and that the work will have to be done over again.

POLICE COURT.—Julia Ring was brought up under the old charge of drunkenness, and got one month. Alas, poor Julia! Why not give her a permanent home? She is past all hope of reformation. It was but the day before that she got out of jail. She had not been out many minutes before she succeeded in getting a glass or two, and then she went on getting more, until the evening, when she was taken to the police station, so dead drunk as to be unable to make her accustomed noise, or to sing those ribald songs with which she generally makes night in the cells so hideous as to prevent her fellow prisoners from sleeping. That night, however, she fortunately had no fellow prisoners, and but for her the Magistrate would have had no case of crime or misdemeanour to detain him.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Citizen.

SIR,—Your issue of Friday last contains a letter from Mr. James Findlay, in which he makes reference to a paragraph published in the TIMES, in which was stated that Mr. Deacon had declined to run against Mr. Murray in North Renfrew as a candidate for a seat in the Ontario Assembly. Mr. Findlay, with an experience of life only equalled by his courtesy, alludes to me in connection with the paragraph in a manner personally abusive. The facts are these: Being unwell the day before that of the issue of the TIMES in which reference has been made, I did not, as usual, visit the office in the evening, and knew nothing of the matter conveyed to the public till noon next day. Mr. Findlay, however, having seen Mr. Speight in the matter, and having received all the information which that gentleman could give him under the circumstances, rushed beyond the materials he had within his knowledge, and with either a foolish or mischievous design, associated my name in his characteristic manner with the report. The report may be true or false; it matters little whether Mr. Findlay or Mr. Deacon oppose Mr. Murray, but the circumstance fully illustrates a characteristic in Mr. Findlay which renders him unfit for a seat in any Hall of Legislature. I mean his unfortunate proneness of making reckless statements. Whether Mr. Findlay cultivates his imagination in this line through motives of mischief—which I hope not—or whether, as is more probable, to gratify a not-yet full grown vanity, it is hard to say. One thing is certain, however, during his entire canvass of the Riding, whose good judgment rejected him as being unfit to represent it in the House of Commons, Mr. Findlay with unerring faith confined himself to gross personalities, and the platitudes of an over-reaching and inexperienced young man whose public life must, to judge by his conduct, have been confined to declamations over municipal disputes. The statement that I circulated the report that Mr. Blake was expected to speak in the interest of Mr. Findlay is equally as prudent on his part, as the many of a like nature which at last disgusted the voters of the North Riding of Renfrew during his late canvass. In a conversation with J. L. McDougall, Esq., and others while riding over the Cobden road, I heard the observation from that gentleman, and I believe his memory will serve him in the matter, if required. I really would not feel surprised if Mr. Findlay, after such a signal defeat, should in the bitterness of his feelings snap and bite a little; but my anticipations have reached the fact in this, after a canvass conducted by him on principles anything but gentlemanly in thus finding him so absurdly vindictive, that his harmless foaming calls forth pity rather than censure.

Yours, &c.,
JAMES COTTON.

OTTAWA, November 23, 1869.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The famous Starr convent case is to come up again in England.

England has had more coal mine disasters this year than for the preceding three years.

The Queen has intimated, through Lord Spencer, that she will next year pay a visit of some duration to Ireland.

It is thought that the election of the Marquis of Salisbury as Chancellor of the University of Oxford in place of the late Earl of Derby will be unopposed.

A new practice in relation to the law of evidence went into operation on the 2nd inst., in England, in the Divorce Court, under the 32 and 33 Vic., chap. 63. It is as follows:—"The parties in any proceeding instituted in consequence of adultery, and the husbands or wives of such parties, shall be competent to give evidence in such proceedings. Provided that no witnesses in any proceeding, whether a party to the suit or not, shall be liable to be asked, or bound to answer, any question tending to show that he or she has been guilty of adultery, unless such witnesses have already given evidence in the same proceeding in disproof of his or her alleged adultery.

More model cottages for farm labourers have been built in England. They are on the estate of Lord Vernon, at Sudbury, near Derby. Each cottage contains a living room, three bed-rooms, entrance porch, scullery, pantry, fuel store, piggery, privy, cesspit and ashpit. Each is provided with a washing copper, sink, and a fire-clay baking oven fitted up in the scullery. The living rooms have cottage ranges, and are fitted with dwarf cupboards on each side of the fireplace, and the bed-room fireplaces have small cottage stoves. The rain water from the roofs is conveyed to tanks for domestic use, each cottage having a pump fixed over the sink in the scullery.

FOREIGN.

A thousand Chinamen, who had organised an independent Government near Cienago, Cuba, have been arrested by the Spanish troops. History repeats itself stupidly. Send some Spanish troops to McTavish.

In relation to the advantages which Russia expects from the opening of the Suez maritime canal, it may be mentioned that the completion of the new railroad between St Petersburg and Odessa brings the capital within sixty-six hours of the Black Sea, allowing eight hours for stoppages and for the crossing of the Dnieper at Kief.

The following explanation is given of the application of the term Valide to one of the Turkish Sultanas. The wife who first gives birth to a son is proclaimed Grand Sultana or Asachi Sultana, and is solemnly crowned with a small gold diadem enriched with precious stones. If the prince thus born ascends the throne, then his mother takes the title of Sultana Valide.

MARITIME PROVINCES

The Nova Scotia Provincial Legislature is now prorogued to the 23rd of December.

Work has been commenced on the contemplated railway between Sydney and Bridgeport, C.B.

The Baptist Churches of these Provinces are requested by the Convention to meet on Thursday, Dec. 2, for "Humiliation and Thanksgiving."

The Grand Jury of St. John, N. B, has returned a true bill against Hunter for the murder of Margaret Veit and her child. The trial is fixed for the 30th inst.

The master of a Lunenburg schooner was lately fined $10 in the Dartmouth police court for using measure under the standard size in selling potatoes.

Bank of New Brunswick $1 and $2 notes are in circulation altered to $5. Bank of Montreal $5 notes are altered by cutting a small portion out of four notes and making a fifth.

The Royalist and Vestal are the war vessels in Halifax. Several ships are daily expected from the West Indies. The appointment of Commander Seymour Curtis to the Royal Alfred is gazetted.

The Halifax Citizen is informed that Capt. Williams, an American gentleman, who was agent of a gold mining company at Wine Harbour, shot himself in his office at that place last week. Pecuniary difficulties are said to have affected his mind, and he had not been considered entirely sane for some time past.

The St. John Morning News states that the Eastern Extension Railway has passed out of the hands of the English Company into those of the Dominion. The latter was closed on Saturday last by the agent of the Company receiving an order for $547,500, upon the Dominion Paymaster at St. John. The whole amount of the Company's claim was $1,044,000, of which they had received $352,500, and the balance of $144,000 is to be held back subject to the report of the Intercolonial Railway Commissioners upon the state and conditions of the road.

We have much pleasure in announcing that work on the Railroad from Sydney to Bridgeport, which was commenced by the contractor on the 10th ult., is going on well and as fast as practicable. Large contracts for materials for the road and piers were closed on Monday last. Mr. Macdonald will be able now to leave for a few weeks to go to Canada where his presence is necessary. Mr. Rogers, Superintendent, will remain in charge of the work. It has been determined to mark the event in railway operations here, by a plain, unostentatious demonstration, at noon to-day, on the grounds in the neighbourhood of the Sydney terminus. Cards of invitation to a luncheon at the "MacKenzie House," have been issued for the afternoon, in commemoration of the day's proceedings, and at which Mr. Morton, the President of the Railway Company, will have the gratification of meeting the friends of the road to celebrate the inauguration of one of, if not the most important public operations connected with the welfare and real progress of Cape Breton. And Mr. Macdonald will be there to give assurance, if that were really needed, that the road will be a first class one; and that the piers, and other works connected with it, are to be equal to meet the most liberal demands of all future coal traffic.—Cape Breton News.

TRADE AND MANUFACTURE.

The San Francisco fleet caught 1,084,000 codfish during the present season.

The San Francisco Bulletin says the "shrinkage" in the value of mining stocks in ninety days was $12,000,000.

The mining stocks of California have depreciated in value within the last 9 months, not less than $5,000,000.

The New York Central Railroad Company will at once commence the work of laying a second track on the Rochester and Niagara Falls division of their road.

A ship is being fitted in England, with stalls to carry 1,000 head of cattle, and proceeds to Texas for them. If this succeed, it will open a market for western cattle.

A Yankee has invented a head-rest attachment for church pews, so that the weary listener to dull sermons may have a comfortable sleep when exhausted nature refuses to listen any more.

A pneumatic propelling company is about to supply New Orleans with a line of street railway cars, to be propelled by air. The machinery is all constructed, and is said to work experimentally like a charm.

Messrs. Armstrong & McCrea, of Guelph, sent some of the products of their woolen manufactory to the International Exhibition lately held at Buffalo, and have received the second medal, the highest award in the group of gents' woolen under-clothing.

It is stated that the great bed of rock in the Suez Canal at Ismailia will be at once blasted out. The rock is eighty feet thick. The convoy at the opening ceremonies on the 17th will consist of eighty ships. The London underwriters mostly decline to insure vessels bound through the canal.
