A wood sawyer, who was piling wood near the railroad track at Edgerton Ohio. one day last week, noticed while standing on the pile, as the lightning train approach ed, a large stick lying upon the rail Without a moment's hesitation he leaped directly before the train and grasped the stick. At that instant the engine struck him and huried him some distance forward. He fell to the ground mangled and liveless, but he had saved the train.

The number of prisoners now in confinement in Massachusetts is about three thousand, against seventeen hundred at the close of the war. The comparison shows the demoralizing influence of the war a sad fact that cannot be denied, and expanded currency. When industry is unsettled, and the temptations to sudden wealth are presented to those who are idle unhappy days have come upon the country, and the result is seen in overflowing prisons and ruined lives. A pretty young Quakeress is making a sensation in Indaina and Ohio by her visits to the prisons and chraitable institutions in those States, two Sundays ago she called at the Indiana State Prison and conversed with its inmates. In the evening she conducted religious services in the cell house. A correspondent describes the effect of her eloquence as something marvelous.
