St. George's Society.—This society with much exemplary thoroughness, has provided for the special fund no fewer than thirty-six families, with the means of having a comfortable "at home" on Christmas Day, representing 172 individuals. The families have been supplied with fine food, groceries, meat bread, potatoes, mince and flour, and, indeed, with all the other necessities of a Merry Christmas. The society has our blessing, in addition to that of charity, which "shakespear, plow man as he was, tells us is twice blessed.

We have much pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the services announced for to-morrow in the York street Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Wild, through a comparatively young man, has already acquired a reputation as a preacher and lecturer which recurs for him upon all occasions a crowded audience. We doubt the "almost apostolic" of the church will be filled both morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Gordon, D. is also announced. An afternoon service at 3 o'clock, and we advise those who have not previously heard him to take advantage of the present opportunity as they cannot fail to be interested and instructed by this eloquent young minister.

NEW HARBOROUGH SCHOOL.
The annual Christmas examination of this school was held in the school house, on the evenings of the 21st and 22nd inst. On the latter evening, when the principal work was done, the examination was conducted by Mr. McMillan, the well-known assistant teacher of the Ottawa Grammar School. The attendance of children was large, and the number of visitors who crowded the school room testified to the warm interest taken in the proceedings by the outside public. The examinations were most creditable by all concerned, and from its thorough and searching character, showed satisfactorily that the labor of the teachers, Mr. Tubman and Miss Lumsden, had been well seconded by the industry and application of the pupils. During the course of the evening the proceedings were enlivened by the singing of several pieces of music by the girls, the accompaniment to which was played on the melodeon by Miss Emily Holmes.

A handsome testimonial, consisting of a cake basket, butter knife, and a toilet rack, was presented to Mr. Tubman, along with an address, which, with his reply thereto, we give below:
NEW HARBOROUGH, Dec. 22nd, 1899.
To T. Tubman, Esq., Teacher,
New Edinburgh School.

Dear Sir, We are deeply indebted by the undersigned school of the Union School, village of New Edinburgh, to present you, on their behalf, with these small articles, which they hope you will kindly accept as a testimonial of their respect and esteem in which you are held by them.

We also request that you will please accept our warmest thanks for the kindness and consideration which you have so graciously shown us during the time you have been our teacher; and hope, if we are spared to attend the school another year, that our good behavior and your attention to our studies, will show that your kindness and trouble have not been in vain.

Wishing Mrs. Tubman, family, and yourself a Merry Xmas and Happy New Year, we subscribe ourselves,
Yours truly,
JAMES BALL,
And some twenty-one others in addition.

My Dear Children—I feel very grateful to you for the kind sentiments expressed in your address towards me, also for the valuable present accompanying it. You must bear in mind that this is an age of progress, and in order to keep pace with other schools and to rise to an exalted position in a career of your mind and perseverance while you are young.

The progress some of you have made is very gratifying to me, and I feel confident that if you must be learning to read, write, and cipher, while you are under the domestic roof of your parents, you will be able to do so with ease and confidence.

I hope you will be spared to begin another year of school, and I feel confident that you will be able to do so with ease and confidence.
