THE SECRET OF SADOWA.

The North German Correspondent of December 4th publishes a statement which has somehow escaped attention in the country, but which seems to us, if it be correct, to involve a very grave charge against both the Kaiser and the Em peror of the French. The Correspondent, as our readers know, is a little sheet printed at Berlin, on one side only published in three languages at once, transmitted by post chiefly to editors and politicans. It must be subsidized some form or other, or it could not be issued; it has unusually early and correc intelligence on all diplomatic subjects of their independence. and it is regarded on the Continent as the organ of the Prussian bureau foreign affairs, so much so, that it is frequently quoted by the Telegraphic Agency, which is under strict official control, as the "semi official Correspondent." One of the objects of its conductors for some time past has been to show that Prussia in 1866 drew the sword mainly from patriotic motives, and it has now made a statement, which, Croup or Sattles.—Da. Singular of Uties, New York, says: "I have used Dr. A.
