HONESTY.-This is a scarce commodity in cities. It is, however, agreeable to meet with some exceptions to the rule. A young man named Thomas Johnston found a pocket TURIE & SON book containing money and other valuable matter in the Mechanics' Institute, last evening and, on discovering the owner, handed it back to him. The owner was one of that class of persons dignified by the title of Pducator as a soother for hard work and small salary. The young man has evidently not forgotten his Educator.

MISSIONARY MEETING .- As will be seen by dvertisement in another column the Annual Andrew's Church, (Church of Scotland), will be held this evening, at half-past seven o'clock. As the speakers who are to give addresses are men of recognised ability there is every prospect that the meeting will be one of great interest. A special collection will be made during the evening in aid of the missionary funds of the congregation.

ELECTION TO-DAY .- The election of School Trustee-for Wellington Ward take place to-day. The polling place is at the Engine House, Upper Town, opposite Hunter, Rose & Co.'s Printing Office. Mr. H. Alex ander and Mr. Barber are the candidates. It is said that there will be a close contest consequently it would be well for those who desire to see Mr. Alexander elected to vote early. The nominations will be made at nine delock, and the polling of the votes will Ammence immediately after.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN WARRFIELD. - We regret blearn that the fine saw and grist mills, lately owned by Andrew Pritchard, E-q, of Wakefield, Ottawa County, were destroyed by Bell's Corners, January 7, 1870. 1252 1 3.2 fire on Saturday last. Early in the morning of that day the extensive buildings were dis-covered to be on fire, and before sufficient aid NARD QUINN, Secretary Tressurer of Trustees, could be obtained, the devouring element had enveloped the structure. With much difficulty a portion of the sawed lumber was noved and saved. A large quantity of

In was destroyed in the grist mill. The roperty was not insured. Mr. Pritchard's loss is not less than $18,000. The destruction of these mills will be keenly felt by the surrounding farmers.

She did fine work, under the circumstances, and gives evidence of still better, if she gets fair play. The time was enlivened with loud talk, scuffling, and a good amount of steep drinking. Money changed owners rapidly, and tall bets were proposed and taken up, but no money laid down-after the TACES Were over.

Police Court .- Sarah Sullivan, a frequent visitor of the dispensary on City Hall square, was turned out of Governor Powell's establishment Monday, and celebrated a little too much. About mid-night she was making times rather lively at the Police Station, with well practiced howls, and imprecations on the heads of the police. Tuesday me ning she scarfs. was brought up before the Police Magistrate on a charge of vagrancy. She stated that if let off she would take the pledge. Poor Sarah had, however, taken the pledge before, and had broken it. She pleaded in extenuation that she had got frightened as Monday. Patrick Roach, a tough looking customer, who has frequently taken one of Sergeant Brown's beds at the City Hall, was asked why he became drunk and disorderly, not feeling disposed to answer impertinent questions was promoted to Governor Powell's mansion for two months, with a fair opportunity of recovering the industrious habits he had neglected of late.

Denis Sullivan, a discharged soldier of the gentle 100th regiment, and whose countenance (black eye included) would suggest that he had been attached to that peace-loving and unpretentious corps, was surprised with an intimation that he would not be permitted to " raise thunder" in the streets. Denis tells a good story. He had never been before a Magistrate till then. Denis tried hard to blush, but the black eye stopped his coursing blood. He had served ten years, and never even had to appear before his commanding officer. He only came to town last Saturday, and was hunting after a place. Denis persuaded the Cadi, and went on his way rejoicing.

Urser .- Mr. Hamm's coach, drawn by four horses, with a load of passengers from the Frederiction train, was upset at the corner of the Bridge Road and Main street, Portland vesterday afternoon. Mr. Robert Shives, Mr. Atherton, Rev. Mr. Kellog, Mrs. Esty, and another lady were inside the coach, but all' escaped with little injury. The driver, Hugh McDevitt, is pretty badly hurt, but no bones broken The upset was can ed by the driver, who, to avoid some slovens on the road crossed the horse-railway track, but when the leaders got over, turned too short; the forward wheels crossed the rails all right, but he hind ones slewed on the track, bringing the forward wheels under the body of the coach, and upsetting it. There were some persons on top of the coach, but they did not receive any injury. The coach is considerably damaged on one side.

Ottawa valley. The future of Ottawa is promising. Trade i brisk, and there is evidence of present and future prosperity. Her means of communication to and from the city, and the facility of establishing additional factories, afforded by the unrivalled water-power at our very doors, will do much to rapidly increase the city of Ottawa still more strongly together. In the views and measures of the existing government the proprietor of the Courser fully concurs, and will endeavour to give it that ful measure of support which circumstances may render necessary, carefully avoiding unnecessary offence to such as may differ from us in opinion We will cultivate a friendly bearing towards the traditions of the past and the actualities of the present, hoping to take a middle but not uncer-tain course, which cannot fail to be appreciated by the inhabitants of the entire valley of the A young people should endeavour to raise themselves to the level of more advanced na-
