and Consumption. Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deep upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent femedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estima-tion, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a re-liable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored a sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. SECOND YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

Prepared for buildings of every description, by SIDNEY B. FPL2P, Architect, Wellington-st. THE ONTARIO FARMER.

This ably conducted popular and invaluable rural Journal, will, on and after January 1st, to get better, but simply tried the medicine as a sort of forlorn hope. This case of mine was not sort of forlorn hope. This case of mine was not a private one, but known to all my neighbours prietory interest in it, become its publishers, in 1870, be issued from the city of Hamilton, Ont. and friends; and to any one afflicted as I was, I | the belief that this region of country, second to have only to say try the Shoshonees Remedy; I | no part of Canada in agricultural and horticulural resources and progress, needs and will ably sustain, a periodical devoted specially to The OSTARIO FARMER will continue to be edited by Rev. W. F. Clarke, who is universally I hereby certify that I have known Mrs. Mary acknowledged to be the ablest agricultural writer ann Doughty tor the last fifteen years; she is a woman of probity and truth. I have known her before, during, and since her illness. I believe "familiar as a household word" among the tarm her certificate to be true in every particular. I ers of Cadada During the past year, Reverend know that while ill her case was declared hope, less; and I know that she has, since her recovery. G. W. Allen Mr. W. Edwards and other eminent contributors have written for the ONTARIO FARMER, and no pains will be spared to recure the con tinued co-operation of leading agriculturists, and horticulturists, in adding variety and interest to its contents During the coming year engraved portraits of rrise animals at the late Provincial Exhibition.

will, from time to time, appear in the ONTARIO PARMER These engravings will be executed by those incomparable stock artists, Messre. Page and Carson, of New York. epecial attention will con inue to be given to the advancement of Emigration, the promotion of Arts and Manufactures, and as during the past year, each number will contain a choice piece of secular or sacred music. The attention of farm implement makers. seeds men, nursery men, dairy men, and others, is invited to the OSTABIO FARMER, as a first class advertising medium.
