Apropos o Sangster, we may draw attention to his adrertisement in another column, in which it is stated that Mr. Chapman Rogers has been of his published volume of poems. Mr Sangster is strue poet, and a Canadian poet as well. A discerning public will do much towards the encouragement of one of the most genial souls among us, by purchasing his book. The Yarn of the " Namey Bell." Twas on the shores that round our coast, From Deal to Ramsgate span, That I found alone, on a piece of stone,

An elderly naval man. His hair was weedy, his beard was long, And weedy and long was he; And I heard this wight on the shore recite In a singular minor key :

Oh, I am a cook and a captain bold, And the mate of the Nancy brig, And a bo'sun tight, and a midshipmite And the crew of the captain's gig.

And he shook his fists, and he tore his hair Till I really felt afraid. For I coulun't help thinking the man had been drinking. And so I simply said "Oh, elderly man; it's little I know

Of the duties of men of the sea, And I'll eat my hand if I understand How you can possibly be At once a cook and a captain bold And the mate of the Nancy brig,

And a bo'sun tight, and a midshipmite, And the crew of the captain's gig!' Then he gave a hitch to his trowsers, which Is a trick all seamen larn,

And having got rid of a thumping quid He spun this painful yarn : Twas in the good ship Nancy Bell That we sailed to the Indian sea, And there on a reef we came to grief,

And pretty nigh all o' the crew was drowned (There was seventy-seven o' soul) : And only ten of the Nancy's men Said ' Here' to the muster roll.

Which has often occurred to me.

There was me, and the cook, and the captair And the mate of the Nancy brig, And the bo'sun tight, and the midshipmite, And the crew of the captain's gig.

For a month, we'd neither wittles nor drink The captain for our meal.

"The next lot fell to the Nancy's mate, And a delicate dish he made Then our appetite with the midshipmite We seven survivors stayed.

And then we murdered the bo'sun tight, And he much resembled pig ; Then wittled free did the cook and me, On the crew of the captain's gig. "Then only the cook and me was left, And the delicate question : 'Which

Of us two goes to the kettle?' arose, And we argued it out as sich. " For I loved that cook as a brother, I did, And the cook he worshipped me; But we'd both be blowed if we'd either stowed

"I'll be eat if you dines off me,' says Tom, 'Yes, that,' says I, 'you'll be. " I'm boiled if I die, my friend,' quoth I; And 'Exactly so,' quoth he.

In the other chap's hold you see.

" Says he : ' Dear James, to murder me Were a foolish thing to do, For don't you see that you can't cook me. While I can-and will-cook you. So, he boils the water, and takes the salt

And the peper in portions true Which he never forgot) and some chopped And some rage and parsely too. " Come here,' says he, with a proper pride,

Which his smiling features tell Twill soothing te if I let you see How extremely nice you'll smell. And he stirred it round, and round, and

And he sniffed at the feaming froth ; When I ups with his heels and smothers his In the scum of the boiling broth. " And I eat that cook in a week or less,

The last of his chops, why, I almost drops,

"And I never larf, and I never smile. And I never lark nor play

And-as I - ating be

For a wessel in sight I see.

But I sit and croak, and a single joke I have - which is to say : "Oh I am a cook and a captein bold, And the mate of the Nancy brig,

And a bo'sun tight, and a midshipmite, And the crew of the captain's gig!"

OTTAWA COURIER Politice, Literature, Commerce, Industry and The French-speaking inhabitants of Ottawa will, doubtlessly, be pleased to learn that a newspaper bearing the above title is about to appear to meet their wants. - Aware of the necessity for take the publication of the Courier, and it shall be my aim in doing so to fully anticipate the requirements and wishes of the inhabitants of the Ottawa valley. The future of Ottawa is promising. Trade is brisk, and there is evidence of present and future prosperity. Her means of communication to and from the city, and the facility of establishing additional factories, afforded by the unrivalled water-power at our very doors, will do much to rapidly increase the city of Ottawa. Confederation has strengthened the social and commercial ties between the English and French still more strongly together.

In the views and measures of the existing government the proprietor of the Courser fully concurs, and will endeavour to give it that full measure of support which circumstances may render necessary, carefully avoiding unnecessary offence to such as may differ from us in opinion. We will cultivate a friendly bearing towards the traditions of the past and the actualities of the present, hoping to take a middle but not uncertain course, which cannot fail to be appreciated by the inhabitants of the entire valley of the tionalities, and this they can only do by being made acquainted with what is done in other parts of the world. This shall be our task, and we shall also urge such improvements as may tend to increase the means of traffic and the wealth of the community. Our attention shall not, however, be confined to city wants. The requirements of the husbandman will receive a full share of our attention, knowing that on the cultivation of the soil the merchant and artisan very much depend. It shall, in a word, be our particular object to protect and encourage the agriculturist, and at the same time assist other industries, and to provide agreeable and useful information for both, in leisure hours. Correspondents will always find our columns open to them in which to express their wants or o offer suggestions, provided the opinions expressed are consistent with morality and couched in moderate, though it may be earnest

Let it not be supposed, however, by anything that may have been said, that the attention of the Courier will be wholly devoted to local matters. The intelligence of the hour from every quarter of the globe will find its way into our columns, the telegraph will be freely made use of, and the latest news will be in every manner possible obtained. Indeed, from the variety of matter which the Courser will contain, and the energy employed in its management, the proprietor fully anticipates success and pledges himself to deserve it.

The Courser will be published every evening at five o'clock, and the yearly subscription, payable in advance, is $4. There will also be a weekly edition, the price of which will be $1 a year. NAPOLEON BUREAU. Editor and Proprietor.
