UNITED COUNTIES OF PRESCOTT AND RUSSELL.

The first meeting of the members of the County Council of these united countles took place on Tursday, the 25th inst. The chair was taken by Peter O'Brian, Esq., clerk of the County Council, who stated that certificates had been handed in to him with the names of the various members from each municipality entitled to a seat in this Council. He asked leave to sit again, and at five o'clock would proceed to call over the names, and the several gentlemen present would answer as

Ing, J. H. Mullay, J. Edwards, W. Wilson, artia Casselman and J. Helmer. The name of George Lawlor, Reeve, of Al-

was also called, but he did not answer the Clerk stated that circumstances had which would probably prevent Mr. Lawbri at ndance. The circumstance, we understand, was that

Mr. Lawlor had been convicted the previous by of selling or bartering liquor in his store eithout license, and under the 22nd section of he Tavern and Shop License Act, had thereby FRIDAY EVENING at half-past 7 O'CLOCK. ate of conviction.

The Clerk then called on the members of the Council present to proceed with the Ottawa, January 28, 1870. election of Warden, nominated by him, hitherto, had performed every duty imposed upon them to their satisfaction. His last and greatest pleasure would now be in proposing as Warden for the present year, an old and valued member of this Coun-Martin Casselman, Esquire, Reeve of Cambridge, He did so with every confidence that it would be an acceptable nomination as they were all well acquainted with his extensive municipal experience, his tried talent, and his unremitting exertions in their interest, and his propriety of conduct on all occasions. He was sure his election would give general satisfaction in these Counties. W. Helmer, Esquire, Reeve of Russell.

seconded the nomination. Mr. Casselman rose and said he must return his thanks for the flattering terms in which Mr. Bradley had mentioned his name, in proposing him for the office of Warden of these counties. He had filled the post years ago by their unanimous vote, and it gave him pleasure to hear now after such a lapse of time that he had then done so to their satisfaction, but much as he felt the honor now core him circumstances were such as must compel him to decline it. It would in every way be most inconvenient to him to undertake the duties. He could not do so without prejudice to his own interest. He could not attend every meeting | Ex " PRUSSIAN," and other Steamships, of this Council, as he ought to do, without a great personal sacrifice, and if he allowed his election to take place he felt that he would WOOL CLAN TARTAN PLAIDS, have to make that sacrifice in attending every meeting of this Council. Under such circumstances, he therefore hoped that they would not press the nomination upon him. Mr. Bradley said that if he could not attend every meeting, they had the power of temporarily electing a chairman in his place. Mr. Casselman sald he would ask it as a favor to be relieved from the position assigned to him, and with their permission he would move the appointment of a younger member of the Council, Mr. Helmer, Reeve of

Mr. Wilson, Reeve of Cumberland, had WHITE, great pleasure in seconding the nomination. Mr. Helmer said he could not think of accepting it, and asked them to name another. Mr. McLeod, Reeve of West Hawkerbury, moved, and Mr. Bradley seconded the nomination of J. H. Mullay, Ecq., Reeve of South Plantagenet, This resolution was put on the withdrawal of Mr. Casselman's name, and carried unani Mr. McLetd, the late Warden, said that wished to say a few words, to thank them for the indulgence shown to him, a young member of that Council, during his year of office
