ONCENTRATED PROOF LIQUEUR M Guyot has succeeded in depriving tar of its nsupportable sourness and bitterness, and in adering it very soluble. Profiting by this happy discovery, he prepares a concentrated liqueur of tar, which in a small volume contains a large proportion of active principles.
Guyot's tar possesses all the adventages of rdinary tar water without any of its drawbacks. A glass of excellent tar water without any disreeable taste may be instantaneously obtained by pouring a teaspoonful into a glass of water.
Any one can thus prepare his glass of tar water at the moment he requires it, thus economizing time, facilitating carriage, and obviating the disagreeable necessity of handling tar-Guyot's tar replaces advantageously saveral Ellis more or less inactive ptisans in the treatment of solds, brenchitis, coughs and datarrhs. duyous tar is employed with the greatest success in the following diseases: As a DRAUGHT-A teaspoonful in a glass of
