THE INDIGNATION SCOTT-MURDER MEETING AT TORONTO.

The meeting at Toronto to give vent to the general feeling of indignation felt by all ase s, at the murder of Thomas Scott, a Fort Garry, was attended by upwards of 5,00 violent act had destroyed any claim which demand rather for .vengeance than justice Justice could searcely be thought of in con-persons. Several of those who had shared t. e ame cell with the unfortunate Scott were resent, and there was an unanimous demand f r justice. The "rights" of the insurgentwere not, for a moment, taken into consideration. The barbarously cruel and wanton taurder of poor Scott had wiped out every particle of sympathy for the insu gents. One Ri I ever possessed towards consideration it ties the mines of those present. There was a acction with a proceeding, which did not feeling-veng ance. The ultimate acquisition of the territory concerns the whole of Canada, and it is the honor of Great Britain which is more especially compremised in the recent diabelical proces dings.
