There is one second hand, and the others to be sold are new. The large number of the Rose brand pianos, which Mr. BOWE has sold in a sufficient quantity to show that these instruments are popular with the Ottawa public.

TEMPORARY - The statement in an evening paper regarding a certain bill suit, we would only wish to say simply, but we do not wish to be understood as saying that it is intentionally untrue. The Grand Jury do not wish to be understood as saying that it is intentionally untrue. They are content to remain in quiet abatement.

FOUR COURT. - E. W. of Connell had been charged with having assaulted a child. The defendant did not appear, and a warrant was issued.

THE MARSHALL TROOP. - An unusually large audience greeted the appearance of the Troupe last night, and certainly the ability with which the play was carried out, and the interesting nature, were highly worthy of the patronage received. All who have enjoyed the witlings of Mr. Lifford, and beheld the able manner in which he performed his part, will admit that he can have few superiors in the comic line. Success will attend the Troupe wherever it may go. To-night they repeat the play of the "Lancashire Lass."

For particulars we would refer our readers to Mr. Bradley's advertisement in another column.
