LOCAL NEWS

Over 150 Packages new Goods on view at Garland, Mutchmor & Co. Full Lines in every Department.

Carpets and House Furnishings made a speciality. The largest stock of New Goods, and lowest prices in the city at Garland, Mutchmor & Co.

Worth seeing, the grand display of Millinery and Mantles, and the crowds of people admiring the Spring Fashions at Garland, Mutchmor & Co.

Finer of this season's Lettuce, Radishes, Rhubarb, &c., &c., at J. B. Bush & Co's, 24 Rideau street.

The Market.—Friday.—Was tolerably fair. The chief feature being a large supply of vegetables of almost every kind.

Sticktaster Case.—Messrs. Hunter & Reid have got up a tidy "stickplaster" case. The cover is of morocco, with a gilt impression.

Wanton Bird Shooting.—It appears that some Indian boys encamped in Hull, near Dey's Bellevue Gardens, have been killing our spring flock of birds. Why do not the Hull magistrates see to the matter?

Opening.—C. P. Dorion, the popular Stove, and tinware dealer, will open to-day at Ling's buildings, opposite the British Lion Hotel. Mr. Dorion's enterprise is getting the encouragement which it deserves from the public.

The Upper Ottawa.—Yesterday morning the steamer Ann Sutton left Aylmer for the Quio, and the steamer Alliance came down from Gould's Landing. The Jason Gould will be ready for her trips about Tuesday next.

Conservative.—An evening contemporary has experienced the effect of "walking about in quasi-summer clothing in the face of an east wind." Is our contemporary getting consumptive?

The Head Roads.—The Aylmer and Gatineau roads are inundated—the former at the Stone Bridge near the head of "Wright's side," and the latter at the "Old Brewery." The dam constructed last year has had this effect, which must, at any rate, be remedied by that populous township.

The Timber Drive.—There is every indication that the lumbermen will have a good "drive" on the Ottawa this season for their timber. The waters are rising rapidly—and the break-up on the river was in good season to suit all the hope.

The Red River Delegates.—The preliminary examination in the matter of the Stott murder will be continued to-day. Mr. Charles Mair and Governor Smith have arrived, and will probably give testimony in the matter. Mr. Young is expected by this morning's train.

Christ Church Readings.—Last night a more than ordinary number composed the audience at these interesting readings in Gowan's Hall. The proceeds of the evening amounted to over $40. The evening's entertainment was in full keeping with those which have preceded it.

Macdonald's 25 Cent Pocket Book.—A very ingenious article to keep "shinplasters" got up by Mr. A. B. Macdonald of this city, is being distributed at a rapid rate throughout the city. All that one has to do is to place the 25 cent paper issue on one of the covers, and by opening it at the other side the bill is found to be stopped securely. They are for sale at Cowan's and A. H. Taylor's, York street.

Among the Last Ditch.—An old habitant from the Quebec side of the river, duly mounted on a dilapidated hay cart, while driving around the corner of Elgin and Maria Streets, yesterday, took the turn too short, and was thrown into a ditch on the latter street. A faithful dog belonging to the old fellow stopped the horse, and ere long some of our police saved the man from suffocation, by pulling him out of the mud. He had been dipping too deep.

A Scarecrow.—An old man in lower town named Basil Verdan, is blessed (?) with a remarkable bad case of a son, aged 17 years. After due correction, the boy promised to obey his parents, and the old couple bought a horse for him in order to set him up in life. He collected his clothing yesterday, and set off with the horse, clothing and harness for parts unknown. His father was wandering in useless wrath of him all day.

Police Court—Friday.—Edward Connell, assault on a small girl—case dismissed.

Two prisoners named Cummings, and McCaulish were hauled up for being drunk and disorderly. They were remanded till to-morrow.

The Corporation of William Stockdale, for building a wooden house on Rideau street. The case was dismissed. Would this be in retaliation for the judgment lately won by Stockdale against the city in the matter of the funeral expenses of the late Mayor?

A Good Thing for Farmers.—We observe that Mr. McCullough, a resident of Kemptville, has obtained Letters Patent for the United States and Canada, for an exceedingly ingenious and useful invention for corn planting. The machine can be worked either simply by hand or on an extended scale by horse power, and is capable of planting twenty acres per day. The seeds are planted in hills at regular distances—as many at a time as may be desired—are covered with earth and pressed more perfectly than can possibly be done by hand. One of the principal excellencies of the invention is the simplicity of its machinery, which is not liable to get out of order and can be easily repaired by the farmer himself.

Funeral.—On Thursday afternoon the remains of Patrick Keating, an old member of the Ottawa No. 1 Fire Company, were conveyed to their last resting place, Sandy Hill, accompanied by a full "turnout" of the Fire Brigade. The coffin was placed on an open catafalque draped in full mourning, and drawn by the members of No. 1, the pall-bearers being selected from all the city companies. The Brigade moved on in front of the Corpse, headed by Sutherland's Brass Band, playing appropriate music, and, as the procession moved slowly along Sussex and Rideau streets, presented a very becoming, though mournful appearance, the whole being marshalled by the worthy chief of the Brigade, Mr. John Langford accompanied by his assistant Mr. Paul Fevereau. The arrangements were complete, and reflect credit on those entrusted with them, as well as on the whole Brigade, for the honor shown to their deceased comrade.

St. George's Day.—The celebration to-day will be more demonstrative than hitherto. Divine service, lunch at Sadlon's, procession, and a good old English re-union in the evening. St. George's Society is not only a national, but a benevolent society; and commands the high esteem of all the public from its many good works.

The Concert will take place at Her Majesty's Theatre this evening. Half of the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Protestant Hospital.

POLYGLOTTIC DEBATE.

During the hour of routine business, after recess, in the House of Commons, last night, the matter of the Canada Central Railroad being on the tapis, Sir George E. Cartier made some explanation in English, which Mr. Ferguson affected not to understand, when Sir George explained in French. Mr. Sandfield Macdonald, rising to his feet, then explained in Gaelic, and was followed by Mr. Lovescote in Spanish, when Sir George E. Cartier thus wound up in latin: Domini Orator—Sedem relinquivi ut ad ordinem cœcæ illustrissimum hominem sivem doctissimum. Tibi latinum oquar, nunc locutos sum in Grecum linguam.

Toronto, April 21.

Red River—Riel's Proclamation, &c.

A special to the Telegraph from St. Paul, Minn., April 21st, says—A prominent St. Paul Red River trader has just arrived from Fort Garry, which he left on the 10th inst. When he left Georgetown no mail had arrived or left there for fifteen days, owing to the flood.

He reports that on the arrival of Bishop Tache at Fort Garry, he enlightened the people as to the intentions of Canada, and they now have a much better understanding of the transfer of the territory. Bishop Tache was endeavouring to restore confidence. Most of the people fully expect a successful result from the mission of the Delegates. The Sioux Indians are becoming troublesome, and shooting cattle belonging to the settlers. They believe something is going on detrimental to their interest and are kept quiet only by liberal supplies of presents. The people of the settlement, and the Hudson Bay Company have acknowledged Riel's Government and all have joined together for safety from the Indians until the bargain with Canada has been made, and a sufficient force arrives from Canada to insure peace between the whites and Indians. The settlers hope, by temporizing with the Indians, to keep them quiet until the plain hunters return to Fort Garry with their winter's hunt, otherwise they may cut them off in small squads and plunder them.

The news of the arrest of the delegates, and the furore in Canada over the death of Scott has not reached the settlement. This may have had a bad effect, as the people had come to the conclusion that everything was going on smoothly, and terms with Canada were almost certain to be made.

Governor McTavish's health is improving.

Riel has given up to the Hudson Bay Company all property confiscated, and has issued the following proclamation:

PROCLAMATION.

To the People of the North West—

"Let the assembly of twenty-eight representatives which met on the 9th of March, be dear to the people of Red River; that assembly has shown itself worthy of confidence. It has worked in union; the members devoted themselves to public interests and yielded only to the sentiments of good will, duty and generosity. Thanks to that noble conduct, public authority is now strong; that strength will be employed to sustain and protect the people of the country. To-day the Government pardons all those whom political differences led astray only for a time. An amnesty will be generously accorded to all those who will submit to the Government; who will discountenance or inform against dangerous gatherings. From this day forth public highways are open, and the Hudson's Bay Company can now resume business. Themselves contributing to the public good, they circulate their money as of old. They pledge themselves to that course. The attention of the Government is also directed very especially to the northern part of the country, in order that trade may not receive any serious check, and that peace in the Indian districts may thereby be all the more securely maintained. That disastrous war which was at one time threatened, has left among us foes, and various deplorable results, but the people feel reassured; and elected by the grace of Providence and the suffrages of my fellow countrymen to the highest position in the Government of my country, I proclaim that peace reigns in our midst this day. The Government will take every precaution to prevent this peace from being disturbed. While internally all is thus returning to order; externally also, matters are looking favorable. Canada invites the Red River people to an amicable arrangement. She offers to guarantee us our rights and to give us a place in the Confederation equal to that of any of the other Provinces. As defined by the Provincial Government our national existence will be based upon justice, and shall be respected. Oh, happy country! to have escaped many misfortunes that were prepared for her in seizing her children on the point of war. She recommends that old friendship which used to bind us, and by the ties of the same patriotism she has renewed them again for the sake of preserving their lives, their liberty, and their happiness. Let us remain united, and we shall be happy, with the strength of unity. We shall retain prosperity. Ah, my fellow-countrymen, without distinction of language, or without distinction of creed, keep my words in your hearts. If ever, in time, divisions should unfortunately take place amongst us, as foreigners have heretofore sought to create, that will be a signal for all the disasters which we have had the happiness to avoid. In order to prevent similar calamities the Government will treat with all the severity of the laws those who dare again to compromise the public safety. It is ready to act against the disorder of parties, as well as against that of individuals, but let us hope, however, that extreme measures will be unknown, and that the lessons of the past will guide us in the future.

(Signed), Louis Riel."
