...ual this was given away, not even only 1,-...00 for incoming settlers would be a very ...ood injustice. He was convinced that it ...ere the Government, and for them to give ...ds of that country, and for them to give ...way a grant of 1,200,000 acres of it was ...rather a premature legislation.

Hon. Mr. McDougall said that the reputation of the Hudson's Bay officials in power there would continue till a new Governor ...

Mr. ... said that if the Government re... delegates they recognized Riel's ... a Government, self constituted ... though it by..., and it Riel's party appointed ... they would remain as officials ... Government was established. He was sorry to hear his hon. friend on the other side say that the insults thrown at the delegates were insults to the settlers at Red River; he did not think that those men, headed by a small party in that country ... sent down as delegates, should be recognized as being the representatives of the opinions of the settlement. He did not hold Judge ... in the high estimation that the hon. ... has for Lambton held him. He believed ... be (Judge Black) was the principal man ... trouble at White Mud River.

Hon. Sir FRANCIS HINCKS thought there was no point the hon. member did not bear in mind. There were certain persons invited to send delegates to the Canadian Government to state their grievances. He did not think there were any grievances, every opportunity was given them to state what they desired, and the Government never would from them. The Bill before the House was framed by the Government along and not from the dictation of any one from that country.

Mr. BOWELL. Then was he to understand that so long as the Government could frame a Bill that could meet the requirements of the malcontents, the wants of the loyal people were not to be thought of.

Hon. Sir FRANCIS HINCKS The whole framing of the Bill was in favour of those loyal people.

Mr. MACKENZIE said that the hon Minister told him that the delegates were consulted as to the framing of this Bill.

Hon. Mr. MORRIS said that in the absence of his hon. friend the Minister of Justice he would state most emphatically that the Bill was framed wholly and solely on the responsibility of the Government.

Mr. MACKENZIE—he knew that Father Nichols, Scott, Judge Black and Doctor Schultz had been consulted as to the boundary.

Hon. Sir GEORGE E. CARTIER said that it was the opinion of those gentleman that the boundary should take in Portage La Prairie, but they had themselves fixed the boundary when it was in the Bill. He would propose that the Government accept the amendment of the claim concerning the titles to lands to the Hudson's Bay Company since the 20th of March, 1869.

Hon. Sir GEORGE E. CARTIER moved the House in Committee on the message of His Excellency respecting the establishment of a Government of Manitoba.

The Committee, rose and reported asked leave to sit on Monday.

The House adjourned at midnight.

THE FESTIVAL ON SATURDAY.

The ancient custom of crowning a "May Queen" was honored in the observance on Saturday afternoon at the convent of the congregation of Notre Dame. The good taste of perpetuating a practice, so long upheld, not only inspires the spectators with whatever he may remember of the past; but gives zest to the pupils in their recitation. Lady Young, as announced, presided over a fair assemblage of ladies, who were interested in the success of their juvenile relatives entrusted to the care of the institution. Among the guests were Col. Elphinstone, Lieut.-Col. Irvine, The Very Rev. D. D. Dansereau, Vicar General and administrator of the Diocese. Dr O'Connor, Rev. J. J. Collins, Rev. Mr. Royer and members of the House of Commons. The stage end of the hall was festooned with evergreens interspersed with flowers. At one side of the stage a throne was erected for the fortunate "Queen of the May." It was surrounded by evergreens, and was constructed with delicate taste. Scrolls bearing the motto 'Virtus' reign, welcome, welcome,' surmounted the stage. The orchestra was a trio on two pianos performed by Misses Duignan, Robertson, Ross and Cook; and the Misses Pollard, McCarthy and McKinnon. The effect was charming and elicited hearty applause.

Aunt Prologue was as neatly read by Miss, Caldwell, which was followed by "The Queen of the Dummies" A dialogue in which several young ladies took part, among whom were Miss Caldwell, "The Queen"—Miss Ritchie Miss McNaughton. "The Queen's mother, Ida Kobtalls. "The Queen's Companion." The dialogue comprised several other young ladies.

This was followed by some well executed music on the piano, and the expected original melodrama of "Cosin" was played with good effect. The play was written expressly for the festival—among the cases of good elocution taught by the ladies of this Seminary, might instance, in this piece, Miss A. King, her, as "Cosin," and Miss, F. Aumond as "Minonah."

The May Queen, Miss Emma, M. Armstrong was introduced with all mimic royal pomp—and having made a graceful obeisance, was crowned by Her Excellency Lady Young, who seemed to feel more than ordinary interest in the ceremony. The Queen assumed her sung little throne, and then received the homage of her fair subjects in addresses in which the variation of metre kept the ear unfatigued. Miss Duignan overseeing the performance as the "Goddess of Flowers." The maids of honor were the Misses McCarthy, McKay, Kimber, Ritchie, Talleyman, Bauset and Cotton—all of whom recognised Her Majesty of "the May."

Adjourn two pianos came next, the overture "Tancredi" performed by Misses Patrick, Wallace, Bernhard and Armstrong, in a style which would have pleased the author, himself. The address to Her Excellency was read by the chosen Queen—with good grace—a chorus followed. "An Revoir" by Miss A. Kimber. A trio on piano by the Misses O'Connor, Mullin and Feron.

This very entertaining afternoon wound up with the National Anthem, Vive la Canadienne, St. Patrick's Day. Miss Cotton asked for the usual holiday following such occasions. It was requested, and granted. Her Excellency was pleased to express her appreciation of the progress made, and of her enjoyment of the afternoon's entertainment, and further her desire to assist, next year, should such another interesting ceremony take place.

The Fire of Saturday.

About half-past three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a dense smoke was perceived to escape from a new shop erected by Mr. Mills, he marble cutter at the corner Sparks and Bank streets. In less than five minutes the building was all in flames. The fire alarm was quickly given, and but a few minutes elapsed when the gallant Chaudiere company came down; but too late to save the building, and the marble factory which was also on fire. The flames soon reached a large basement house, owned by Mark Bishoprick, and made their merciless way into his carriage factory, where a quantity of turpentine and varnish, become ignited. The fire flew wild, and in a short time enveloped his dwelling. The efforts of the fire companies, who were promptly on hand, were useless. The fire king had assumed supreme rule. The timbers of the buildings were dry, and the flames light; they were in consequence speedily consumed. The furniture of eight or ten families was exposed on bank st. to the relentless attacks of the flames, much of which was destroyed. The conduct of the Chaudiere Co. exerts special mention, although all our fire companies exerted themselves to the utmost. The warm day, and the fearful heat from the blazing buildings could not prevent the gallant fellows of this company from saving the buildings opposite on Bank st. which took fire in three or four different places. The Hook and Ladder Companies acquitted themselves with honor in saving the furniture. Two members of Mr. Marshall's Theatrical Company exhibited a courage, and a coolness extraordinary at the peril of their lives in Bishoprick's building. The fire, in all did not last over two hours, during which time the factories and eight tenements were destroyed. Mr. Bishoprick has lost his implements, and stock. Mr. Mills has lost a large amount of prepared stock, besides several hundred feet of rough marble. Both about to insure, but had not done so. Bishoprick had been offered $3,000 for his property a few days before. The total loss to these gentlemen approximates $8,000.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

Floor Breaking through and Precipitating three Females and Kitchen Furniture 25 feet.

About two o'clock on Saturday, as Mrs. Poulin, wife of Mr. Pierre Poulin, grocer, with two servant maids, was attending to her domestic duties in the kitchen of her house—the flooring of that section of the establishment gave way, and the three persons were, with the kitchen furniture, among which were two heavy stoves, precipitated some 25 feet among a mass of ruins. Their escape from from death is almost miraculous. Mrs. Poulin was severally injured in an arm and otherwise bruised. The two servant maids fared hardly in the disaster. One Marie Villeneuve had her wrist dislocated, and the bones of her arm bruised almost to a fracture. The floor ing went down as a trap-door; and it was fortunate that the position of the stoves was such as to glide off before the woman. The kitchen floor was almost unsupported, as are many in the same range of buildings on Sussex-st. But for the timely interference of some three or four persons who happened to be at hand, and for the prompt aid rendered by Drs. St. Jean, and Valade, more serious results would have taken place. As it is Marie Villeneuve is in a very critical condition. It is all well to be economical in building a house, but parties so being should consider the value of human life. A few more dollars would have placed that kitchen floor in a secure state.

OUR LUMBER TRADE.—There were nearly six millions of feet of lumber shipped from the Chaudiere, last week; and over five millions of feet sawed there during the same period, although the mills are only partially worked So much for Ottawa enterprise.

THE MARKET—Saturday—was really a good one. The western end of the square was filled with waggons bearing produce and other commodities. A dog fight enlivened some of the idlers, but it did not result in anything serious to the later. They seemed too lazy to take inspiration. The prices remain unchanged.

BROKEN SIDEWALK.—During the excitement of the fire of Saturday, an engine coming up the side walk on Sparks st. broke through the planks—a miserable debris is the consequence. Our corporation might save damages by supplying the deficiencies as soon as practicable, as the break is a bad one, and might easily a worse.

HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Marshall's excellent Company gave another performance on Saturday night The play of "Agnes De-Vere" was performed in such a manner as to do credit to any theatre in the country. The most nautical faces of "The Spitfire" was altogether new to the audience. It was well got through—the entire audience remaining to the curtain dropped, and the National Anthem was struck up by Sutherland's band.

ANTICIPATIONS.—The jumbling disposition of such a large amount of furniture was to be carried and thrown on a vacant lot during the late fire, without regard to any ownership, has already been the cause of several disputes among the women-folk who suffered. It is to be hoped that after the misfortune of a fire the further calamity of a Police-court trial will be avoided.

FIRE IN THE WOODS.—A too frequent fire has occurred in the wooded sections of the surrounding townships. Has been raging with fearful fury on the Quebec side of the river. In the Townships of Templeton about four miles square has been passed over by the consuming element. Several houses and barns, the latter charged with produce, have been destroyed. In several cases it was with difficulty that the cattle were saved. Portions of other townships, it is said, are being desolated by the furious element.

POLICE COURT.—Saturday—Terence O'Neil, drunk and disorderly, was sent up for one week in default of paying $2 and costs.

W. H. Campbell was fined $2 and costs for being disorderly.

Timothy Murphy, for an assault on Emelia Lalonde, was sent up for one week in default of paying a fine of $2 and the costs of action.

Edward Alty, charged with having stolen $75 from Mrs. McKenna, pleaded "not guilty" and elected to be tried summarily. The testimony went to prove that he had actually taken the money—his own acknowledgement having backed it. He stated he believed he had taken the sum; but was so drunk that he did not remember the fact. After the testimony had been taken, he withdrew his plea of "not guilty" and pleaded "guilty" to the charge. His Worship, after a severe lecture, gave him the extreme penalty authorized by the Statute—six months in the common gaol at hard labor. The sum of $75 was restored to Mrs. McKenna. This is the first instance in which His Worship has given so severe a sentence.

MONTREAL, April 7.

A couple of Turkish officers are at present in the city. They are en route for San Francisco. Their appearance in the streets excited considerable attention.

Yesterday, in the Guilford case, in the Superior Court, Mr. Doucs, Q. C., appeared before His Honor Justice Mondelet, and made application for an order to compel a prothonotary to issue a writ of Mandamus enjoined by His Honor's judgement on its merits. Mr. Doucs stated the Prothonotary had refused a writ on the ground that the case had been taken to review. His honor inquired of the Prothonotary if the case had been carried to Court of Review Mr. Henry produced a record and inscription to review. His honor then said the writ for burial could not issue and expressed his satisfaction that other tribunals would have an opportunity of adjudicating upon a case of such great importance and which involved so many questions of public interest. The case will be tried, being a writ of mandamus before the Court of Review of three Judges of the Superior Court, of the 25th inst.

Shortly after two o'clock this morning a fire broke out in a stable belonging to Felix Bernard, above Guilbault Gardens. The stable was destroyed, and the fire spread to the adjoining buildings, occupied by Beadeau, a shoemaker, and others. The houses but not the furniture were insured. Two stables adjoining the above houses were also badly destroyed by fire. The firemen did not get to the fire as quickly as usual, in consequence of a mistake in striking the alarm. The cause of the fire is not known but is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Will be ready for delivery

ON THE 25th OF APRIL, 1870

LAURIE'S MAP OF THE

NORTH WEST TERRITORIES.

This map supplies a desideratum long felt, and shews:

I.—The whole of the Fertile Belt, and those parts of Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Dacota through which the waggon roads pass to Fort Garry.

II.—The actual survey of the Selkirk Settlement, with all the roads, churches, &c., including the New Government Road from Fort William to Fort Garry.

III.—The Canoe route from Fort William to Fort Garry.

IV.—A Sectional Map giving all the Railway or Steamboat Routes by which St. Cloud can be reached—(St. Cloud is the present terminus of railway travel).

V.—Tables of distances on the Overland Route.

Emigrants can see at a glance where every egod Camping Ground or Station (Hotel) on the road is situated, and calculate the rate of travel accordingly.

Newspaper readers will find it an invaluable aid to a proper understanding of the news from that interesting region.

The map has been compiled by D. CODD, Esq., of Ottawa, from official maps and reports never yet made public; and in this work he has been assisted greatly by a practical knowledge of the country laid down.

The Map is 24 by 48 inches, beautifully lithographed, and will be furnished at the following prices:—

" colored,..... 1 50
