

Dominion Parliament.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

OTTAWA, May 11, 1870. Mr. MACKENZIE—Why change it then? [Great laughter.]

Mr. BLANCHET was a free-trader, but supported the tariff as an experiment, and in the hope that reciprocity would be obtained thereby. It was not done during the year, he hoped the Government would reconsider the question.

A division was taken—Yea 55, Nays 86. Yea—Messrs. Beaudry, Benoit, Bodwell, Bolton, Bourassa, Bowman, Campbell, Carleton, Chalmers, Conroy, Currier, Davidson, Golin, Hagar, Holton, Hutchinson, Joly, Kempf, Kierzkowski, Macdonald (Glengarry), Macfarlane, Mackenzie, Magill, Masson, (Soulange), McCarthy, McDonald, McLaughlin (Lansark), McDougall (Renfrew), McCombes, Metcalfe, Mills, Morrison (Victoria), O'Brien, Piquet, Poirer, Ross (Wellington), Ryan (Montreal West), Rymal, Scatcherd, Snelter, Stron, Thompson (Wolkeham), Tremblay, Wallace, Wells, Woodman, Wright (York Ontario), and Young—55.

NAYS—Messrs. Archambault, Ault, Beaulieu, Bellerose, Benoit, Blanchet, Bowtell, Brown, Broussard, Brown, Burton, Cameron (Huron), Cameron (Peel), Campbell, Carling, Carrier, Sir G. E. Casault, Cayley, Clouston, Chauveau, (Simon, Colby, Currier, Daoust, Dobbin, Drew, Dufresne, Ferguson, Fortier, Gauthier, Gibbs, Gray, Grover, Harrison, Heath, Hinks, Sir F. Howe, Huron, Irvine, Jackson, Jones (Leeds), Keeler, Kirkpatrick, Lacerte, Langevin, Langlois, Lawson, Le Vesconte, Macdonald, Sir J. A. McDonald, (Lanark), (Tremblon), McCallum, McDougall (Three Rivers), McMillan, Merritt, Morrison, (Soulange), Munroe, O'Connor, Oliver, Perry, Piquet, Poirer, Read, Robitaille, Ross (Dundas), Ross (Prince Edward), Ross (Victoria), Scatcherd, Sherry, Simard, Stephenson, Tilley, Walsh, Webb, White, Whitehead, Wilson, Wright (Ottawa Co.)—86.

Mr. WORKMAN moved that the Bill be not now read a second time. He said that it is not in the public interest to impose taxes on coal, coke, flour and wheat, and that the taxation will fall upon the poorer and exceptionless classes on the cooling sections of the Dominion. The Finance Minister, the other day, in announcing his 3 o'clock policy, had said that the whole of the Minister's without exception, were against such taxation, and he hoped that they would accept the amendment.

YEA—Beauchamp, Benoit, Bodwell, Bolton, Bourassa, Bowman, Broussard, Burpee, Campbell, Carrier, Currier, Chalmers, Clouston, Chauveau, (Simon), Colby, Conroy, Currier, Davidson, Golin, Hagar, Holton, Hutchinson, Irvine, Joly, Kempf, Kierzkowski, Langlois, Macdonald (Glengarry), Macfarlane, Mackenzie, Metcalfe, Magill, Masson (Soulange), Masson (Lansark), McDonald, McDougall (Renfrew), McDougall (Three Rivers), McMillan, Merritt, Morrison, (Soulange), Munroe, O'Connor, Oliver, Perry, Piquet, Poirer, Read, Robitaille, Ross (Dundas), Ross (Prince Edward), Ross (Victoria), Scatcherd, Sherry, Simard, Stephenson, Tilley, Walsh, Webb, White, Whitehead, Wilson, Wright (Ottawa Co.)—75.

Mr. YOUNG said the question should be considered with moderation, but the issues were too important if the future of the Dominion was so deeply involved, that it would be criminal to remain silent. He was not astonished at the feeling in Ontario, for the people not only felt that the country had been humiliated by the invasion, but that a loyal Canadian had been murdered, but that the future of the magnificent North-West Territories was trembling in the balance. The Government had humiliated in not consulting the Red River people, in pushing through a Bill at the close of last session to govern them by a Lieutenant-Governor and Order-in-Council. This provoked an obvious comparison with the neighbouring American territories, and the action of the officials sent there had increased the jealousy and alarm of the people. To cap the climax the Secretary of State for the Province had allowed himself to be misled by the disloyal and unscrupulous agents of the Canadian Government; and that gentleman remained silent at a time when silence was to betray his country's cause, and if the hon. member for North Lanark was to be believed, the hon. gentleman was to actually encourage the disloyal agents to resist the transfer to Canada, and to insist that the hon. gentleman should be longer hold a position in the Council of Her Majesty (hear, hear). Since the 3 o'clock

PROVINCE OF MANITOBA.

The debate on the Bill for the Government of the Province of Manitoba was then resumed. Hon. Col. GRAY was glad to hear that the policy of the Bill was peace to all parties concerned in the insurrection. They ought to look at the Bill in the light of future and not in the light of the present irritating circumstances, and he should support it.
