To Contractors-K. Arnoldi. War-Esmonde Bros. Dissolution of partnersnip-Hughes & Co. Strayed-John Heney. Her Majesty's Theatre-W. J. Marshall. Millitary Tailors-Preston & Rowsell.

Officel 36, Sparks Street. WEDNESDAY, JULY 27, 7870.

Eight deaths from sunstroke in New York on Monday.

yesterday, inspecting the ordnance property turned over to the Dominion authorities by the Imperial Government.

Administration with delight.

found excitement in England. We regret to announce the death of Mr.

many years suffered from asthma, which down, and compelled him always to sleep in an easy chair. He was a man of considerable literary ability, "

We are glad to hear that some effort is about to be made with a view of prevailing on the Corporation to plant shade trees in ; the streets of Ottawa. Shade trees are our citizens would be greatly promoted if warned of the consequences of an inappearance of the city would also be very schooner Wildfire and steamship Day, with him the next morning. As the party much improved. Let an effort be made both of which vessels were found lying ed and the comedian's wife appeared upon cil to this matter. They object to anything in the shape of improvement with a persistence worthy of a better cause still a petition largely signed by ratepayers might have some effect. At all events let it be tried.

Wells, the Special Commissioner of the law. which gold was shipped to the amount of duce resolutions and make speeches of the ly running into debt at the rate of $150,000,. mined to maintain them. The officers in would seem, every chance of success,-000 per annum, in addition to exporting a charge of the squadron have been well considerable amount of gold; and an im- selected. They are not only experienced married the Princess Victoria on the so fond of telling in relation to American is to keep his name prominently before the schieve fame are anxious that the reputa- them in Canadian waters. The action of how once, before rising to speak in the women, a purloiner of silver plate and pianos, or the organizator of senseless resolutions in Congress that his name comes being through the Gut of Canso were stopped reason that their only real object is by armed vessels bearing the British flag. betray their country into the hands of If he had deigned to look at the Canadian a foreign power. Beside the miserable fishery law he might have ascertained our whinings of the Chronicle how manly and authority for so doing, and thus he would true the words of the Halifax Reporter aphave been saved from making his igno- pear. The Reporter says :rance manifest, while the American Con- "The real question forced upon us the pasage of an exceedingly foolish resolution. The 31st Victoria, cap. 61 section; the Empire ? We may assist the other navy serving on board of any vessel of Her uting of our ed officer of Her Majesty's navy, fishery fficer, or stipendiary magistrate on board of any vessel belonging to or in the serisheries, or any officer of the Customs of may go on board of any ship, vessel or -California Paper.

OF CANSO.

such place or distance. Captain Scott, R. N. who is the senior-The treaty between France and Prusais, officer in charge of the Cananian vessels and brown stout, sold in England and Irealluded to in our telegraphic despatches in the waters of Nova Scotia, in the course land at forty five cents per dozen, is re-France in 1866, and in which the annex-particulars in relation to the conduct of the bottle. Good case clarets, sold in Havre knowledge that Napoleon contemplated od by our officials with a view of enforcing | bottle. And yet we stand it." ted with the coast and knew were to find place of residence. the best fishing ground, offering them a George Tarrant, the celebrated crick. military stores, share of the fish caught as an inducement, after an illness of about ten months, in the habit of purchasing salt and ice for curing and preserving the fish from bowling. He was one of the Australian measure next session. Nova Scotian dealers. Canso were bound upon They were not seized, but were merely to Meriden, Conn. One of the performers dering the Canadian fisheries. In the instructions furnished to the again part them. officers of the squadron by the Depart ment of Marine and Fisheries, they are the announcement that the balance of the privileges acceeded to them." In reserve or the Guard Mobile.

$182,000,000, towards the payment of of making a little political capital, intro- he at the same time supplies us bountifulmense quantity of produce to Great Britain seamen, but they are possessed of those 25th January, 1858, is entrusted with an and Europe every year. This is the real qualities which have always been the attrinot be gainsayed, and they serve to show tering, intolerant manner. In this the battle of Sadowa. He is a dushing and respect as in all others they will be sure to city as a military leader. His present that more and immediate help was required a large cavalry camp at Thouville, which West, while her Italian alliance enabled of beer in Prussia by dat time." And so mingled prosperity which some people are obey orders, and will, we may rely upon command will bring him into immediate ed. About 400 cords of well seasoned fireit, avoid giving any just cause for offence. | confact with the French advance. As we have before said, men like Butler all they can to prevent the negotiation of going to speak? "Yes." "Does your louse. The Imperial Guard is reported to Prince would be perfectly explained. For louse arrangements between Canada voice frighten you?" "Yes." "Do all be on the way to Metz, but their probable it is no secret that Count Bismarck is look. and the United States, by which the fish. your ideas forsake you ?" "Yes." "Do ermen of the latter might obtain those you wish the floor to open and swallow privileges which were formerly enjoyed by an orator." Dr. — told of Canning, too, our Government in this matter has been House of Commons, he bade his friend feel warmly endorsed by the people of this il know I shall make one of my best country. Journals representing all shades speeches," mid Canning "because I'm in of public opinion, have concurred in their | such an awful funk!" only provided for the adequate protection | place, says a writer in Dickens' All the of the fisheries, but have enforced the law Year Round, concerning the sound of the in a dignified and judicious manner.

A NERVOUS PATRIOT. The Halifax Chronicle compelled by the two since, the doughty General open advocacy of annexation, has adopt. Church, in Kent. To their surprise, they and proposed a ed the equally obnoxious but yet more found the congregation standing outside Mr. Disraeli's remarks were cheered vocifbunkum " resolution, requesting the Pre- cowardly and absurd independence cry. the church door, although it was eleven erously, and Mr. Gladstone was forced to si lent to demand of the British Government | Its latest argument is based upon the supfunder what pretence of right, and under position that in the event of Great Britain faint reverberation of cannon, which came | dor in Paris, has been ordered to demand whose orders, American fishing vessels had | being involved in a European war, foreign from the east. It became afterwards | immediate explanations from the Emperor been arrested and detained on the voyage | vessels might come steaming up the har | known that the clock of the church of | Napoleon about the treaty, and if refused, to | all the money is in gold, which shows the | Government had consulted that of France, | to a more central position in the town. in the straits of Canso, on their way to the bor and throwshells into the city. We do not Nivelles struck eleven as the first gun was leave at once with the whole Legation. fishing grounds, by armed vessels flying think that there is much reason for our conthe British flag." Mr. Butler introduced temporary being very nervous at present, that the sound heard at Hythe proceeded clads for sea with all possible despatch. this resolution to the House in a short A good deal has to happen before Halifax from those guns, although the distance . A universal feeling of indignation is felt speech of his own peculiar and inimitable is endangered. Great Britain must lose the can hardly be less than a hundred and ten throughout the Kingdom and the British in the American war, and will act on the negotiation, and we cannot estimate with borders. style of spread-eagleism. The American command of the sea which she now posmild and gentle tempers, as rendered it will have to be destroyed. But how would Brussels time, and that at Hythe kept defeated. the smallest powder monkey on board the ironclads steaming into the har fleet, were depicted by the "hero of New bour? The Americans avow that they eventful Sunday, a gentleman residing Dovas, July 26.—Nine French frigates, or the property of the propert Orleans" as coarse rufflans, desperadoes of this point to the deepest dye, beside whom the Britain single handed, but would like to when his attention was arrested by a delithe deepest dye, beside whom the buccaneer Morgan would have seemed amiable, and Dirk Hatterick a mild and civil spoken gentleman. In point of fact, the officers and sailors of the Canadian schooners, according to Butler, are noth-schooners, according to Butler, and the same provided the arrange cate convulsive movement of the Emperor in the provision sa written reply, as follows; "The formal orders of the Emperor does to school and the same provided the arrange cate convulsive movement of the Emperor does to school and the same provided to scho

Are we making all exertions necessary better then we have done, or by contrib alongside of the Regulars of the Empire Majesty's navy cruising and being in the Our first duty, however, is to provide for waters of Canada for purpose of affording our own defence. Then if we have to protection to Her Majosty's subjects on call upon the Regular forces to keep us we may do so with good grace.

CURRENT TOPICS

A newspaper offered prizes for the vice of the Government of Canada and em- poem, the best tale, and the best letter, written by a boy or girl. It received three times a many poems as tales, and three times as many tiles us letters. The poems Canada, sheriff, magistrate or other per- were three times as bad as the tales, and House yesterday morning, by making a son duly commissioned for that purpose, the tales three times as bad as the letters. hole in the partition wall and jumping from boat w thin any hartfor in Canada or A little girl in a western town, after stone's government is fast losing the con- hovering (if British waters) within three Magdalen reclining on her face and weep ly welcome the incoming of a Conservative board so long as she may remain within Magdalen is crying. It is because Mr.

The New Orleans Times :- " English ale

Ludlow, including the presentation to the eter, died on Saturday last; at Cambridge,

Quite a melo dramatic incident occurred who separated from his wife some years ago, was visited by a man who introduced fringement of the law. Captain Scott alin Pirate Cove, waiting to ship Canadian the scene, when a complete reconciliation Helen's island yesterday by the storm fishermen to assist in the work of plum was effected, and husband and wife now and the branches were blown off several Disposition of the French Force yow "that nothing but death shall over others

There appears to be a general sympathy in France with the movement for the organization of methods of relief for the sick | to Quebec told that during the admission of Amer- and wounded of the army. We see, among | The last of the troops at Isle aux Noix ioan vessels to Canadian ports, "they other indications of this, that the General American prosperity and progress are (i. c. the Americans) may be subjected to Council of the Bank of France have voted the favorite topics with some Canadian any restrictions necessary to prevent to give 100,000 france to the Sanitary Sonety, and have resolved to continue the Quebec journalists. It is only a few days since we them from taking, drying, or curing fish salaries of all employees called into the read in the columns of a contemporary therein, or in any other manner abusing military service, whether in the army, the trade was now in favor of the United boarding the vessels referred to, Captain "A Farmer of a Thousand Acres" has States, and that the gold of Europe was Scott acted in accordance with the letter written from Pontefract to Mr. Mechi on fast pouring into the national treasury. and spirit of his instructions, and in com-The statement recently made by Mr. pliance with the provisions of international wheat, oats, and barley, and also potatoes, and clover very good, and also turnips. Revenue, tells a different story however. It is a great pity that Mr. Butler I think, upon the whole, that Divine Pro-He shows that the balance of trade against and other members of the American Con- I sometimes think that God smites us for America on the 30th of June amounted to gress of a like calibre, should for the sake lying about the deficiency of crops, when geau, who refused to sit.

$25,000,000, leaving $157,000,000 owing to kind to which we have referred. Why not Travellers by the Underground Railway foreigners. The excess of imports over only make themselves and the legislative discovered the means of getting rid of the exports was $45,000,000; the interest or body to which they belong appear ridiculous, sulphur which at present is given off so American securities held in Europe but they mislead the American fishermen largely by the railway engines, and which amounted to $86,000,000; while the amount and tempt them to break the law and lay makes subterranean travelling at this of the American carrying trade done by themselves open to capture. All Mr. But-unhealthy. The inventor is Mr. Barff, forforeign ships was $25,000,000 in excess of ler's bluster will not have any effect with merly an English clergyman, but who, that done by American ships. In fact, as the Canadian authorities who know what having seconded to Rome, has adopted en-Mr. Wells showed, the United States are the rights of Canada are, and are deter- gineering as a profession, and with, it

Prince Frederick William,

They encourage them to Sir Lytton Bulwer asked him (I think the his pulse, which was throbbing terrifically.

> and the two were walking to Hythe miles. It was afterwards urged in object nation is thoroughly arroused. Greenwich time, or even Hythe time, the Large numbers of workmen are engaged gunboats

BY PROPLE'S LINE.

P. Drummond's Exchange Office

TORONTO. Ac ident-Cricket Match - Pigeon Match-Prisoner Escaped, &c.

Tonowro, July 26. Edward McDermott, a boy aged ten, fell to the bay yesterday and was drowned. 7.958 emigrante arrived here in June. whom 3,177 remained in Canada.

Eleven of the Toronto Cricket Club have one West to play with the London team to lay, and at Chatham to-morrow. A pigeon match yesterday between Jas.

Ward and Robt. Berry, 16 birds each, resulted in Ward killing 14 to Barry's 11. A prisoner named McKay, who had just be n sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary, escaped from the cell in the Court

The Daily Telegraph advocates the inforfidence of the people of Great Britain. marine miles of any of the coasts, bays, ing, suddenly turned to her mother, and mation of a small standing army for Cana-The colonies of the Empire would certain creeks or harbors in Canada, and stay on exclaimed, "Mamms, I know why Mrs. da, and says it has good reasons for believ ing that this has already occupied the athas been partially decided on.

It is said that three battalions are to formed at once for Ontario; one for Queyesterday morning, was one proposed by of his report to the government gives some tailed in New Orleans at fifty cents per bec, and one for the Maritime Provinces. and Baltic. Its commander was informed 200 miles east of Sindy Hook, showing two The strength of each to be the same as that the meutrality of Belgium forbade the red rockets, supposed to be the Cambria ation of Belgium was contemplated. The American fishermon, and the action adopt in New Orleans at seventy five cents per dozen, as retailed that of a regiment of British regulars. The by the steamship Ville de Pari, which system will also be similar to the British in such a step has naturally caused a pro- the rights and protecting the property of Mr. J. D. Allcott, of Worcester, being most other respects, though the term of the Dominion. It appears that the cus shout to retire from business, has pur service will be considerably shorter, probatom has been for the masters of American chased the Earl of Craven's estate near bly not more than two or three years. A nounced a forgery, and characterised as to Prussia as a price of peace after the war fishing boats to proceed to the Gusysbor- livings of Onibury and Stanton Lacey, for regiment will not be stationed in one place, the order of the Grand Sydney shores, and there engage a sum considerably in excess of £30,000. but each important garrison town will have city, and promises that proof shall be for a cession of the Grand Duchy of Lux-Canadian fishermen who were well acquain He will build a house on the estate for his a company or two in order to preserve and forthcoming. protect the barracks, fortifications and

This we are told is the general outline of They have also combined smuggling with " Tear em," or " Pepper," as he was fa the scheme which the Government had the profitable sport of illegal fishing, being miliarly called, suffered greatly during under consideration, respecting which they

MONTREAL.

Accident - Storm-Military Prison-69th Regiment. MONTERAL, July 26th.

A man named John Clancy, laborer, gree excluded from our streets, and the ludes especially to the case of the daughter, and invited him to breakfast broke several of his ribs by falling into the Thirteen trees were blown down on S

> The military prison at Hochelaga will b closed. All the prisoners are to be moved are to be withdrawn, and the volunteers

Flour market extremely flat.

QUEBEC.

the state of the crops. He says :- "This Municipal - Geo.ogists - The Late Quanto, July 26th.

> Mesers. Brunet and Julien were nominated yesterday to represent St. Roch's in the City Council in room of Mr. Touran-Weston and Grant, geologists, are visit-ng the island of Orleans professionally. A hundred visitors left yesterday and to-day, by land and water, on a pilgrimage Several reports have come in from the identified.

Buckley and Haggarty are here collect-They leave next week for Montreal.

country of vast destruction of property by

HILAIRE

St. HILAIAB, July 26. Yesterday at 2 p.m. a fire was discover-against France-An Immely made Public-Activity in the Dockyards - Reported Skirmish-A Carlist Uprising -French Frigates at Seabe Fortified - General

LONDON, July 26 .- The scene in fired from the French centre at Waterloo | Orders have been sent to Portsmouth | diately, and carry on campaign where appear is exactly calculated to irritate | dred dollars in Montreal by a kind friend

tion, that according to one account, the Paus, July 26 .- A rumor is current Saar, should the Prussians defend that the negotiations between Prim and the fishermen were represented as industri- sesses, and the fortifications of Halifax battle did not begin till half-past eleven; here of another engagement, on a larger stream. Each gunboat carries one heavy Prince of Hohenzollern have been carried ous, peace-loving men, filled with love to upon which the Imperial Government has but to this there was a rejoinder, that if so le, between French and Prussian forces gun, manned by twelve men and command. all the human race, and possessed of such lately expended such an immense sum, the clock near the field of Waterloo kept near Strasbourg, in which the latter were ed by a Lieut, d'Vesseau, wrong to any it be if we were "independent"? with difference of longitude would go far to fill this morning on the fortifications of Paris. Every thing is quiet in Luxemburg, and Prince's candidature. The Provisional The Canadian sailors, from Commo- out any navy to defend us, would there up this gap, Hythe was not the only Manner, July 26 .- A Carlist uprising communication with Germany is easy. M. Royal Navy, down to not then be any danger of foreign place in the south east of England where, took place last night, which was sup. The French officers boast that they have extent, owes its existence to the French ing of a skiff. it is believed, the noise of the Waterloo pressed by the troops. Further distur- a million men between Theonville and Government, which has sedulously pre-the yard arm of the, first American manof-war.

The Prussian authorities, at the earnest reof-war.

The Prussian authorities probably consists in that of-war.

The prussian authoriti

Mr. Butler expressed a desire to know Republic! But it is useless to argue with by what authority American vessels pass the Independence party from the simple Lillest by Telegraph low the arms.

Latest advices from Berlin inform us powerful force at Mayence. Prussia is using balloons for observation. Loxpos, July 26 .- S veral French cruisers are reported off Wick, Scotland, to News by way of Berlin is very meagre, which is due to the prudence of the Prus-Frankfort on the Maine has been designated as Prussian headquarters. There is unusual activity in all dockyards The excitement occasioned by the publis departure, by the populace.

lightion of the secret treaty between France and Prussis is increasing, as evidence be- lains in the army. comes more clear that the document is editorial remarks this morning on the pro- information reaches the Government from which the scheme of Marshall Print would prowess and editorial remarks this morning on the property and inches and inches all similar in tone. France must the seat of war, it will be furnished to confront the Legislature of the Empire. course, next explain this offensive treaty," says the them by telegraph, and that, in the ab Such an attempt is indeed, fraught with a Times. There is no question but that the sence of such advices, they may consider double significance. It may mean that press, the Times particularly, is seeking to that no news of importance has been re- Count Bismarck, conspiring with Prim or up at Port Burwell make this treaty the pretext for the inter. ceived, and take no notice of rumours using him as a tool, has resolved to inflict vention of England in favor of Prussia. The attitude of Ireland is freely comment-recently held in Ireland, and the strong with $30,000 cartridges. the next room into the street. He was not resolutions of sympathy for France, which have been adopted, the Times asserts that the sympathy is altogether due to Catholicism, and a consequent hatred of German

New York, July 26 .- A cable despatch dated London, 26th, says the Government tention of the Government, and a scheme of Belgium has ordered from the harbor of Antwerp the detachment of the American squadron in European waters, which had rendezvoused there in order to watch a special from Washington saying that our navy is to be placed on a war footing im- don special says English feeling has been navy yards to hasten the repairs and com- treaty between France and Prussia.

Another despatch says that the whole Naw York, July 25th .- The World has by Prussia.

ays: Marshal Lebœuf late last night tele- the general opinion. The conversation graphed to the Emperor that Gen. Berris among the members of Parliament turned had repelled a reconnoisance of the enemy on no other topic near the town of Niederbrown, 26 miles | Mr. Gladstone in his reply, while de north-west of Strasbourg.

two made prisoners. The Figure insists that the officer who | would give unmistakable apprehension. was killed was an Englishman

CABLE NEWS

-French Fleet expected to Standard Correspondent Arrested-A fast day in Prussia-Quiet state of affairs in Paris-British Parliament. GREAT BRITAIN.

will observe Wednesday next as a day of by the United States to aid Prussia. fasting and prayer to propitiate Divine Providence and invoke his blessing on their THE EUROPEAN DIFFICULTY Eleven French frigates, steering east passed Hastings to-day. French residents here are liberally sub scribing to a fund for the wounded Reports from Mayence indicate the Prussians are shifting their positions so as protects the left of the French army. This her to encircle France with a cordon of it goes. force will be increased to 40,000, the first subsidiary States. division third corps commanded by Gen. Amigrand, composed of the 18th battalion | Prim were unconsciously playing into the of Chassuers, and 59th, 81st, and 95th regi. hands of Count Bismarck and the Emperor ments of the line. This division marched Napoleon, and creating for them a strong this time is at Boulay, on the road to Saar. the designation of a mediatized Prussian grants are settling in Guelph.

The Rev. Mr. Moffat, the celebrated Cape of Good Hope. The prospects of harvest in England im-

Bavarian videttes have been seen with | national sentiment of a new Parliamen Prussians ; this fact is important, as it and of persuading it to acquiesce in a large diate Explanation to be de- shows that the Prussian and South German | military expenditure for the sake of forces are completely blended, and the tional aggrandizement. On the other manded as to the Treaty late- Prussians have 6,000 cavalry, which is hand, he would not be sorry to come to the It is confidently affirmed here that the poleon, by enabling him to get up a cry Prussians are retiring and concentrating the French press against Prussian ambition. between Mayence and Coblents.

Standard was arrested. He entered the gen candidature for the Spanish throne, camp without leave, telling the sentinel | will exactally play his own game, and en-

The authorities prohibit the sale of mili-

Marshall Bazaine is sending everywhere The Standard (July 7) says: To the for maps of Bavaria.

France with less enthusiasm or more dis which Serrano and Prim have so wantonly, of the township trust of success. Crowds on the Boule not to say stupidly; provokel by what yards who were ready to die for their they seem only yesterday to have chuckled country have disapprared. Trongs are marching through Paris to | The Daily Telegraph (July 7) thinks it is take trans for the seat of war, and they reasonable enough to anticipate that the at them and shrug their shoulders.

the gates of the city. of France at Stutgart was insulted, before which my prevail.

Admiral Boilet Willaumere, made the Surveillante his flag ship. Each regiment of infantry is supplied

Gen. Baraguay d'Hilliers is placed in command of the Paris troops going into garrison in the fortifications in Paris.

AMERICAN NEWS

The Herald's special says that a vessel was passed last night between 10 and 11 the progress of events in the North Sea o'clock, wind blowing fresh from the west,

The Yacht "Cambria" Sighted

New York, July 25 .- The alleged secre paper published as a copy of the secret treaty between France and Prussia turns bad French, written by a German. The of 1866, between Prussia and Austria, and Times, however, again asserts its authenti- again revived recently when France asked emburg and conquest of Belgium assisted Shall I then prove a coward? I'll ere be to the table for the suppose

New York, July 26 .- The Tribune's Lon profoundly moved by the publication, this Orders have gone forward to all the morning, in the Times, of the proposed pletion of every vessel that can be placed | The grave urgency with which Mr. Dis raeli, in the House this afternoon, ques-Paris, July 26th .- The Journal Officiel | tioned the Government, has justly reflected lining absolutely to commit the Govern

An officer, a Bayarian, was killed, and ment to any opinion or declaration whatever, betrayed in a manner more tha New York, July 25 .- The World has a special from Washington, saying that our navy is to be placed on a war footing im-

A Paris correspondence of the Tribune writes under date of the 25th, that the Emperor was expected to leave for the front last night, but did not go. His de Attack Kiel-The London parture will probably be delayed for some NEW YORK, July 25 .- About three hundred French citizens of New York met this evening to express their sympathy and tender aid to France. P. Twohey, an Irishman, spoke, expressing the sympathy of the Irishmen with France, and declared that if necessary a million men could go to her aid, should LONDON, July 25 .- The people of Prussia | the Germans in this country be encouraged

It is expected the French fleet will at. The London Press on the Hohensollern Candidature.

The Times (July 6) says it must be assumed that the name of every new candidate will be canvassed zealously at the Tuilleries, and that any choice which seems hostile to France will be opposed. There is generally some personage to whom the which French and German citizens in The screw steamer recently seen in the popular imagination ascribes superhuman America express respectively their confi-Bay of Biscay under canvass and moving astuteness, and the French have seen the dence in the result of the Franco-Prussian hand of the Machiavellian Bismarck in war. The scene is laid in Louisville. A every unexpected event since Sadowa, great, stalwart Prussian, addressing him-The Rouse of Commons to-night, rejected | Many of them are convinced that Bismarck self to a Frenchman, remarks : the proposal to abolish the sinecure of the made the Spanish Revolution to distract, "It wont be mooch of a fight. Beesthe Emperor's attention and engage his marck vill vip, certain. And if they need The House of Lords considered the armies. What, then, will be the effect if it help vy von hundred tousand Americans, Educational Bill and the frish Land Bill; be announced as positive that the Prussian and jus clean em out, by damn." prince is to reign at Madrid? Bismarck | "Ah-ha!" indignantly exclaims Johnny the House of Commons were not concurred | will be said to have gained his end, to Crapeau, "bring de big Preuss on-you have reaped the reward of his bold and leetle Frenchman he just eat him up. skilful policy, and to have built up a Prus- He just eat de big Preuss fricassed for von African missionary, has arrived here from sian alliance in the rear of France. A breakfast. Ah ha! it be vera short fight; Prussian King of Spain, closely related to de next ting de Frenchman he eat his din the House of Portugal, would be a person- nare in Berlin." age whom France would regard with irre- | "Bah !" says the Prussian, "dat is all Private Boxes, $1.00 and $1.00 During the Austrian war he commanded ed in a large pile of cord wood belonging | The special correspondent of the pressible jealousy. It will be membered; French nonsense; I do not believe dat; greeable for Messrs. Young, Stephens & it exceedingly unlikely that they would the first army corps. He won the battle of to the Grand Trunk Railway. The alarm Tribune writes on the 22nd inst., describing too, that the brother of Leopold is that exceedingly unlikely that they would the first army corps. He won the battle of the Grand Trunk Railway. Co., the Montreal Independence firm, to discharge Ithe difficult and delimite Munchen Gratz, in Bohemia, on the 29th of fire soon brought several men armed the movements of troops on very Charles of Roumania who so cleverly frogs in France before October." that day: There were ten thousand made his way to a quasi throne four years " Sacre !" responds the Frenchman, have such statements made, but they can duties assigned to them in a blue of June, and on the 3rd July took part in statements made, but they can duties assigned to them in a blue of Sudows He is a dushing and the Prussia twirling his moustache, a la Napoleon, westerly wind augmented the fire so much Avolt, three thousand at Sarguemines, and | was attaining to dominion in the East and | "de Frenchman will not leave one glass

> The Daily News (July 6) thinks that it be on the way to Metz, but their probable it is no secret that Count Bismarck is look. Township of Kinloss. aid of his good friend the Emperor Na-The extravagant excitement of certain of Arrests are made daily. the Paris newspapers, and their ridiculous The correspondent of the London tirades about this Hohenzollern Sigmurin-A Terrible Massacre-Paris his British passport was an order from able M. Ollivier to drag another red herring across the scent of his internal policy. Whatever may come of this rumoured cantary maps to civilians. No officer can buy didature, we may be sure that the French them; no parcel or goods permitted to Government will pass neither the Spanish come by rail, except by quarter master's nor the Prussian frontiers to prevent it. Even if it should cause a civil war in Spain, Factories unable to obtain coal will be it will not be permitted to disturb the French people the elevation of a cadet of The organization of postal service for the | the Prussian royal family to the throne of Town Hall. Spain must appear an insult and a menace. A military chest arrived this morning, It might have been acquiesced in if the of the Great Western Railway at Guelph French intend to quit the territory imme. but this surprise—this intrigue as it will A Belgian has been robbed of two hunthe French people without distinction of at whose house he was a visitor. Great importance is attached here to parties. We do not know what part, if gunboats, which will be used as they were | any, the Prussian Government had in this | Rhine and Moselle, and possibly on the anything like accuracy the situation. If on without the knowledge or approval of Count Bismarck, we may take it that the It is believed that the Prusians have no declaration of the Duke de Grammont certainly and immediately disposes of the | flashes of lightning. Government of Spain, which, to a certain drowned on Wednesday last by the capsizvented any inroads into Spain, must yield more cripples than in any other two places ing but pirates, and ought to be hung at the yard arm of the arm of the yard a whole business probably consists in that A farmer near St. Johns is about to erect

Never has war been undert ken by estrangement between France and Spain

traverse the streets without a single cheer. greater the aversion shown by the French Soldiers joining their regiments walk Government to the new condidature, the about in groups, and the Boargeois sneer greater will be the inclination of the Span, of July The aspect of Paris could not be more united act of national self-assertion. As day, suddenly as nelancholy, even if the Prussians were at | to the attitude of France, no doubt need now be for a single moment entertained. caused his death The Duke de Grammont only expressed Alad, sged nine Pagis, July 25, midnight.—The Minister | the clear and definite resolves of the Imattempt to place on the Spanish throne a b at. The sade Many priests have volunteered as chap Prince intimately connected with the reigning House of Prussia would meet the most recovered about helf The journals say that the Minister of the determined resistance on the part of cident. Interior has addressed a circular to all Pre- France; and M. Ollivier frankly spoke of The Lacrossites of Nearly all the journals of London have fects assuring them that whenever any which the scheme of Marshall Print would prove to give a second to the formation reaches the Government from which the scheme of Marshall Print would prove to give a second to the formation reaches the Government from which the scheme of Marshall Print would prove to give a second to the formation reaches the Government from which the scheme of Marshall Print would prove to give a second to the formation reaches the Government from the scheme of Marshall Print would prove the give a second to t a new humiliation on the Empire by seat | fer ing a cadet of the Hohenzollerns on the throne of Charles V. Immediate humiliation, future peril-that is what Prince Leopold's success will really signify for-France. In a day or two we shall more clearly know the chances that a candidature so difficult and so omionous of danger will be pressed upon the Spanish nation by its present rulers; and then it will be time at the Red River settles to consider the grave perils to the peace left nothing behind but of Europe which have sprung up all in a solation.

The Prussian National Anthem.

I AN A PRUSSIAN. " (" Ich Bin Fin Preusse.") am a Prusstan ! see my colors gleaming-The black-white standard floats before me

For freedom's rights, my father's heart-Blood Such, mark ye, mean the black and white to Though day be dull, though sen shine bright I am a Prussian, will a Prussian be !

Before the threne with love and faith I'm bend- on the way to market Whence, mildly good, I hear a parent's tone ; With filial heart, obedient ear I'm lending-The father trusts-the son defends the throne! tried the experiment of any Affection's ties are stronger-live, O my country one dollar bills in his hat a

The King's high call e'erflows my breast so backs in every direction mis I'm a Prussian, will a Prussiun be ! Not every day hath sunny light of glory

A cloud, a shower, sometimes dulls the les ; Let none believe my face can tell the stery, That every wish unfruitful is to me. ow many far and nearer, would think exchange much dearer? The Freedom's naught-how then compare with me ?

I'm a Prussian, will a Prussian be! And if the angry elements exploding, The lightnings flash, the thunders louder roar, Hath not the world oft witnessed such forebod-

No Prussian's courage can be tested more. Should rock and oak be riven, to terror I'm not Be storm and din, let flashes gleam s I'm a Prussian, will a Prussian be!

ere love and faith so round the monat Where Prince and People se clasp firm the 'Tis there alone true happiness can muster.

Again confirm the feality I the honest noble Be strong the bond, strike hands, dear hearts, with me, Is not this Prussia? Let us Prussians be!

Thus showing clear how firm the meeton's

Johnny and Hans on the War.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Montreal is still enveloped in smoke. A number of the better class of emi-A freak of vegetable life agitates the

The Brantford Mechanics' Institute is to have a grand excursion in a few days. There was not a single person at the Hamilton Police Court on the 22nd inst. An accident to a dry goods van agitated ye locals" of Hamilton lately. Goderich was lately astonished by the appearance of a watering cart.

Heavy rains in Western Canada still impede the harvesting of the hay crop. A terrific thunder storm passed over Guelph on Thursday evening last. The summer show of the Elora Horticul tural Society was a great success. A daily stage now runs between Klora

The public garden of Halifax has been further adorned by a handsome fountain. A number of Americans propose buying Kingston is agitated at the prospect of a young lady delivering a lecture in the

It is contemplated to remove the station Stratford is certain that the Grand Trunk

Company's works will be erected at their Another grand musical treat is to be af forded Brantford by the Choral Society of A dry goods clerk and a noted grocer of Hamilton lately mistook the gas jets for

In Harristown, Ont., at present there are for some time past carn eclipsed by the Wellington, Grey and Bruce was this day dissolved by Numerous towns of Western Canada have discharge all debts, and to me

LOCAL

EXAMINE WEATHER - Fot erday the th rmoh in the shide. War.-In Messra tot had a pick so MARKET.-Tues well filled this es are beginning to gh they still sell t

THE MERCHANTS IS big price is offe have a good de creeks, which o moment-in the very moment, too, when A report is circular

M. Ollivier was smoothly protesting that armed Indians are ut great expens "nowhere did there exist any cause for unknown. DE COURT.-Tue A leading article in 6 which they discharming A squad of Infantes ses adjourne Col. Gray. in alledged assa Business was dull min ns fined $5 and c

> On opening a box on Vt., it was found that de eters and cabm twenty-five lambs confe-A Washington gentlema WALL AT THE RU mto; J. Haigh a $300 poorer, if not wise m Louisville F. Ritchell, M. IF YOU WANT AN tt: R. J. Pato SHOOLBRED & CO.'S CELE ent London, Er ANCE SALE. ad : J. Nillor, J Patterns post free on spo THE ONLY PLACE T VINS GOLD MEDAL ($1.) MAJESTY'S THE GLOVES FOR 75CTS, IS AT 1.

J. R. Reed, Tro

wind took off his hat, scatter

SHOOLBRED & CO.'S. ted on the posts Patterns post free on applica-Though some On Monday, 25th instant at Bislate Mr. P. Casside, late of County . The funeral will take place from her law dence, on Welmin Th man, a line the Marshall promise m. Friends and sequent sees an appear Thursday evening invited to aread without fateration. on Major's Hi Thoroughly Renovant The "The

ldts_" Hesperi Section-"The GRAND OPENING THE Thursday Evening him

JOHNNIE WILL MESTARY TAILORS. n to Messrs. Pres The Celebrated Comelina, wheal a some of his most POPULARS Messrs. Pre MISS NELLIE NEL rough practical Cornedicase and Testin, sess, and have well selected

TEW AND POWERFILDORS to obtain well BOX PLAN now open storm and

Ottawa, July 27, 1576. 10 CONTRACTORS

July 25th, 1870. To the kaife of only durable and relia Ottawa, July 26, 1876.

and the same Peter McMeris experienced very heavy hall storms, in on account of the said Partie Dated at Ottawa this foots